Dr. Sheppard Indicted, Releases Statement Protesting Innocence

Anti-Red Bill Passage Seen By Knowland

Senate Leader Holds Out Hope for Action In Spite of Differences

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California said today he thought it was still possible to reach a bipartisan agreement on a much-tossed-about bill to ban the Communist party.

Twice yesterday administration leaders were rebuffed, first by the Senate and then by the House, in their efforts to keep out of the measure a provision making Communist party membership a crime.

Surprise Upset

The double setback was a surprise upset for Republican leaders after they had engineered a move that only the day before put the bill through the House in a form satisfactory to President Eisenhower.

With Congress now rushing toward adjournment, Knowland told newsmen he was pinning his hopes on a Senate-House conference committee to work out a compromise agreeable all around.

In its present form, after shuttling back and forth between the House and Senate amid charges of "politics," the bill would:

(1) Deprive Communist-dominated labor unions of any legal standing before the National Labor Relations Board; (2) strip the Communist party of all legal rights; and (3) make membership in the Communist party illegal, punishable by five years in jail and a $10,000 fine.

Led by Democrats

The outlawing of Communist party membership was first written into the bill in the Senate in a move spearheaded by Democrats who have heard some Republican oratory call their party soft on communism.

Atty. Gen. Brownell has contended this would interfere with, if not wreck, the enforcement of present Communist-control laws which rely on a more indirect approach such as the 1950 Internal Security (McCarran) Act and the 1940 Smith Act.

The internal security law requires all subversive organizations to register with the government. Many top-echelon Communists have been convicted under the Smith Act, which makes it a crime to teach or advocate forcible overthrow of the government. The administration says making Communist party membership directly punishable would only drive the Reds underground, make martyrs of them, and wash out years of

DR. SHEPPARD INDICTED. A Cuyahoga County grand jury yesterday afternoon returned a first degree murder indictment against Dr. Samuel Sheppard, Bay Village osteopath, in the death July 4 of his wife, Marilyn.

LOWER: With less than 30 hours freedom behind him, Dr. Sheppard returns to jail after being indicted. The handsome osteopath had been out on $50,000 bond before the grand jury returned its whirlwind indictment.

Returned to County Jail Charged With Murder of Wife

CLEVELAND (AP)—Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard issued a lengthy statement today declaring, "I am not guilty of the murder of my wife, Marilyn," and saying he and his wife had "rejoiced that we were to have a second child."

The statement was given out through his brother, Dr. Stephen Sheppard, at Bay View Hospital in Bay Village.

Dr. Samuel Sheppard himself was back in county jail, rearrested last night after a Cuyahoga County grand jury indicted him on a charge of first-degree murder in his wife's fatal clubbing on July 4.

"I loved my wife," said his statement. "We rejoiced that we were to have a second child—all the scandal and gossip to the contrary. We had even given our unborn child a name."

The name, he added, was Stephen Allen.

The Sheppards' 6-year-old son, Samuel Jr., nicknamed "Chip," was asleep in an adjoining bedroom the night his mother was killed.

"I was severely injured in the encounter with her murderer," said Dr. Sheppard, "and I am still suffering from the effects of those injuries."

Sticks to Story

He has contended throughout the murder investigation that he grappled with a prowler the night of the slaying. For most of the time in the month which followed, he wore a heavy leather orthopedic neck brace.

The statement said Dr. Sheppard has told the authorities "all I know about the murder of my wife. I have done this freely and willingly because I am more interested in the capture of my wife's murderer than any person on this earth."

The young osteopath's return to jail ended a brief period of freedom—scarcely more than a day—which was cut short when the indictment charged him with murder. He was taken to the same four-by-eight-foot cell which he occupied from July 30 until Monday morning.

The handsome, 30-year-old osteopath was eating cherry pie in the kitchen of his father's home when sheriff's deputies came to rearrest him. They let him finish eating.

Had Visited His Son

He was there for supper after visiting with Chip, his 7-year-old son. The boy has been living with an uncle since the July 4 morning when his mother was clubbed to death in her bed.

The deputies arrived at the senior Sheppard's home an hour after six men and nine women grand jurors returned the indictment charging that the athletic osteopath "unlawfully, purposely and of deliberate and premeditated malice, killed Marilyn Sheppard," his 31-year-old pregnant wife.

Arraignment Set Friday

Sheppard had been free on $50,000 bail for 29½ hours. During most of that time, the grand jury listened to a parade of 15 witnesses testifying on the case. They deliberated about 40 minutes.

Common Pleas Judge Arthur H. Day set 9:15 a. m. Friday for the arraignment of Sheppard, who will then enter a plea. Since his first arrest July 30, Sheppard has maintained his innocence and clung to his story that a prowler killed his wife and injured him in a fight.

Agent Accused Of Ducking at Liquor Hearing

Department Attorney Says Man 'Thumbed Nose' at Investigation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An attorney for the state liquor department yesterday said former liquor enforcement agent John L. Kocevar of Cleveland "thumbed his nose at the department" and stayed in hiding when officials wanted to question him about reported misconduct.

Kocevar wants his job back. He was until last month supervisor of the Canton - Portsmouth district.

Dropped From Payroll

He was dropped from the pay roll after the department said he took unauthorized sick leave shortly after questioning about his associates on a 1952 trip to the British West Indies.

The two-day hearing on Kocevar's "automatic resignation" ended yesterday before the civil service commission. A decision is expected in about two weeks. Just before the hearing started yesterday, Kocevar was served with a summons directing him to appear before the Franklin County grand jury.

The grand jury is investigating reported statewide liquor shakedowns.

'Believed on Leave'

Kocevar objected to the liquor department's order which held he had resigned because of 10 consecutive days' absence without leave.

He testified he believed he was on sick leave during the month of July. The state claims this sick leave never was approved.

Protest Readied

Koreans Hear U.S. Plans Withdrawal Of Three Divisions

SEOUL (AP)—South Korean national assemblymen said tonight the United States plans to withdraw all but three U.S. divisions from Korea by the end of 1954.

There are now six U.S. divisions in Korea.

The report was made during an emergency night session of the National Assembly which voted unanimously to oppose a withdrawal.

'Heard Nothing of It'

An Army spokesman in Washington said he had heard nothing of plans for withdrawing part of the 8th Army from Korea.

Assembly Chairman Lee Ki Poong said South Korean representatives in Washington would discuss the matter with top U.S. officials tomorrow.

Foreign relations committee chairman Whang Sung Soo said the United States plans to pull out all but two U.S. divisions and one combined division of U.S. and other U.N. troops.

An informed source said President Syngman Rhee was advised by aides now in Washington that the U.S. National Security Council will make a decision "within two days."

Rhee and other ROK government officials long have demanded that three South Korean infantry divisions be formed for each U.S. division pulled out of South Korea.

Twenty South Korean divisions and seven divisions of U.S. and U.N. troops now are in South Korea.

Demonstrations against the reported withdrawal were being scheduled throughout South Korea tomorrow, official sources said.

Refuses To Comment

An 8th Army spokesman refused to comment on the report.

"This is a time when South Korea must oppose any withdrawal of U.N. troops from Korea in view of the fact that the Communists are building their strength in the North," Lee said in a statement.

In Washington, an Army spokesman said he had heard nothing of any troop withdrawal from Korea.

Sunday Traffic Crash Claims Woman's Life

Mrs. Harry Sells, 24, Expires in Columbus; 16th Auto Victim Here

Mrs. Katherine Marie Sells, 24, of Columbus died in University Hospital in Columbus Tuesday afternoon at 4:40 of injuries suffered in an automobile collision Sunday afternoon at the intersection of U. S. Route 30 and State Route 37, west of Marion.

Mrs. Sells became the 16th traffic victim in Marion County this year. All but three of those fatal accidents were outside the Marion city limits.

The woman was a passenger in a car driven by her husband Harry, 26. The auto was headed south on 37 and collided with a car driven east on 30-S by Roy D. Ireland, 65, of near Edison.

Mr. and Mrs. Sells and their daughter, Katherine, 2, and Ireland were all taken to Marion City Hospital after the accident. Mrs. Sells was transferred to the Columbus hospital Monday.

She suffered a skull fracture, injured gall bladder, and fractured pelvis. Her husband suffered a concussion, lacerations, and severe shock. The baby suffered a fractured skull, fractured of both arms and legs, and severe shock.

Ireland received a concussion and lacerations of the face and head. He was reported in "poor" condition this morning. Sells, who is in "critical" condition, was transferred to Mercy Hospital in Columbus today. His daughter remains in Marion Hospital in "Critical" condition.

Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Sells are being made by the Cook and Sons Funeral Home in Columbus. Arrangements are incomplete.

Betts To Postpone Local Conferences

Representative Jackson Betts, originally scheduled to be in Marion Thursday and Friday for conferences with his constituents, has postponed the trip until the first or second week in September.

The necessity of remaining in Washington because Congress is still in session forced the postponement. A definite date for the Marion visit will be announced as soon as possible, Betts said.

Here's Text of Statement Released by Dr. Sheppard

CLEVELAND (AP)—The text of a statement issued today in behalf of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard:

I am not guilty of the murder of my wife Marilyn. How could I, who have been trained to help people and devoted my life to saving lives, commit such a terrible and revolting crime?

I was severely injured in the encounter with her murderer and I am still suffering from the effects of those injuries. Dr. Hexter, who examined me for Coroner Gerber, on July 4, reported that I was injured in the right side of the forehead, both eyelids of my right eye were contused, that I could open my mouth only about 50 per cent, and there were cuts inside my mouth; that there was an injury to my right chest, and that the cremusteric reflexes were absent and there was an absence of abdominal reflexes.

The absence of these reflexes

4,500 Atomic Workers Vote On Wage Boost

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP) — About 4,500 AFL production workers at two atomic plants here vote today on whether to accept a previously rejected 6-cent hourly wage increase—and maybe pull the rug from under a rival CIO union holding out for more.

AFL leaders recommended that the workers accept, apparently reviewing the earlier stand in the light of a Taft-Hartly injunction slapped on the CIO last week when it called strikes over the same issue at other atomic plants here and at Paducah, Ky.

Transformer Is Struck, Star's Equipment Idled

A bolt of lightning struck a transformer at the rear of The Star office this morning in the height of an electrical storm, causing a delay in the printing of this afternoon's first edition.

The disruption in power at The Star was the only incident of storm damage reported in the city by police, firemen, sheriff's deputies and General Telephone and Ohio Edison Co. officials.

Power which runs linotype machines and printing presses was cut off about 11:45 a.m. High winds and a heavy rain accompanied the lightning.

Yangtze Flood Believed Worst

Damage High Despite Red Chinese Denials

TOKYO (AP) — The rampaging Yangtze River swelled to another new record high at 5 p.m. yesterday, Peiping radio reported today.

The river, which apparently has run wild through central China, hit 29.7 meters (97.44 feet) yesterday at Wuhan, a tricity industrial complex at the junction of the Yangtze and Han rivers, Peiping said.

Peiping claimed the "dike network guarding (Wuhan) is standing firm."

This report contrasted with those of China travelers whose observations indicate the Yangtze apparently has deluged farm land for hundreds of thousands of square miles in its worst flood in recorded history.

Bob Avila Takes Up Slack During Slump by Rosen

Second Baseman's Batting Defeats Tigers in Ninth 4-3

CLEVELAND (AP) — A big reason Cleveland Manager Al Lopez isn't yanking out his hair over Al Rosen's batting slump is Bobby Avila, whose ninth-inning single won the Indians a 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers last night.

The little Mexican second baseman has taken up the slack this month while Rosen is having the most batting trouble of his major league career.

Even without much help from their big man, the Indians have kept the second-place New York Yankees from closing a gap of three games.

"I look for Al to come out of it," Lopez said, "and Avila and Doby are keeping us in there on the attack."

While Larry Doby has provided six homers in 17 August games, his batting average actually has dropped five points to .275. Avila, however, has been hitting at a .380 clip for the 17 games, batting in 13 runs on 27 hits, including three homers.

In Avila's best of five previous seasons with the Indians—1951—he hit .305, had 10 homers and batted in 58 runs. Currently he's hitting .326 with 12 home runs and 44 RBIs.

"I do nothing different when I bat," Avila says. "Must be I'm stronger. Maybe because I drink so much milk. I drink it allatime."

The swarthy infielder explained he drinks as much as two quarts of milk a day, starting the practice last winter when he had stomach pains and an x-ray disclosed an ulcer.

Rosen, benched last night by bursitis pains in his left shoulder, may not play today or in Thursday's double-header.

"I'd like to play," Rosen said, "but if the shoulder doesn't feel any better, there's no use. It's too late in the season to be taking chances. Besides, (Hank) Majeski can do the job."

Majeski, at 38 the oldest Indian in the wigwam, went hitless last night but has a .318 batting average second only to Avila. During his August slump Rosen has made only eight hits, two of them homers in 60 trips to the plate and his batting average has skidded 30 points.

If Avila has been a pillar holding up the Indians attack, Bob Lemon, who singled home the tying run last night, has been the standout of a pitching staff that allows the opposition an average of only three runs a game.

Lemon's eight-hit triumph last night was his eighth without defeat during the past four weeks. Only he and Virgil Trucks of Chicago have pitched 17 American League victories, and Trucks has lost six to Lemon's five.

To chalk up his sixth 20-victory season in the past seven, Lemon needs only to win about one-third of his starts in the Tribe's remaining 38 games.

Avila's game-winning hit last night followed pinch singles by Dale Mitchell and Dave Philley, Lemon's base hit and a walk to Al Smith.

The Tigers had gone ahead, 3-2, in the ninth when singles by Ray Boone and Walt Dropo and a walk to Al Kaline loaded the bases with none out and Boone scored on Bill Tuttle's fly.

Cincy Bats Fail; Bruins Sweep Two

CHICAGO (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs are back on their famine diet.

They scored only one run yesterday in two games, dropping a twin bill to the Chicago Cubs, 5-0 and 6-1.

The seventh - place Cubs took advantage of the change in the Cincinnati bill of fare to snap a 10-game losing streak.

The Redlegs total hit production for the day was 11. Cub veteran righthander Howie Pollet gave up five hits in the opener and lefty Paul Minner allowed only six in the nightcap.

On the other hand, seven Redleg hurlers served up 22 hits in the two games, three of them home runs including a grand-slammer by Clyde McCullough in the second game. It was the first bases-filled circuit smash for the 36-year-old catcher in his 14-year major league career. Hank Sauer and Ralph Kiner homered in the opener.

Corky Valentine suffered his 10th defeat in the opener. It was the first time in three tries the right-hander has failed to conquer the Cubs.

McCullough's grand - slammer in the fourth proved the downfall for Bud Podbielan in the nightcap. It was Bud's sixth defeat of the season.

The double setback dropped the Redlegs under the .500 mark by six games. Their chances of returning home in fourth place next week appear slim.

Prospect Tops Police To Win League Crown

Prospect has won the Marion County Teen League baseball championship by defeating Marion's Fraternal Order of Police nine in two straight series games.

Steve Lauer hurled Prospect to a 6-3 win last night on the Prospect diamond for the crown.

The winners managed only two hits but took advantage of wildness on the part of starter Butch Simpson and his relief, Kenny Ellwood.

Four walks in the opening frame accounted for the first Prospect tally while walks in the third and fourth led to runs. Three runs in the fifth on two errors, a walk, and triple by Moser clinched the victory.

Lauer was touched for four hits by FOP while he struck out eight and walked four. Simpson and Ellwood were only reached for two hits. They fanned 12 while walking nine.

Marion got in hot water in both the first and third innings when the leadoff batter drew a walk. In both instances they scored after two were out. Three straight walks brought in the first run while a walk and single accounted for the second run.

In the fourth, a walk, pair of passed balls and single by Landon brought in another run. The scoring was concluded in the next frame on an error, passed ball, walk, triple by Moser and another error.

Marion netted one run in the fifth on a walk and singles by Eddie White and Dave Gallimore and scored its final two markers in the next frame on a walk, singles by Marlo Barrett and Bob Messner and an error. Pete Bumgarner collected the remaining Marion safety in the third.

The FOP squad and Marion Indians will vie in the deciding game of their three-game series for the city Teen championship Friday at 8 p.m. at Lincoln Park. It will mark the final game of the baseball season here. The Baseball for Boys Commission today wished to thank all the fans, sponsors, managers, coaches and anyone who helped make the Marion baseball program possible.

Leo Claims Giants Still Club To Beat

NEW YORK (AP)—He's not quite so confident as he was back around the All-Star Game, but Manager Leo (Shakewell) Durocher of the New York Giants has not exactly counted his club out of the National League race.

"I know we've lost that fat cushion we had," he sighed today as he prepared to send the Giants against the Philadelphia Phillies. "But the fact is we're still in front and we've got as good a chance as anybody. It's really a new season with some 40 games to go."

Durocher was glad to see the Phillies arrive last night, especially since he was unlikely to see their ace, Robin Roberts, who tamed the Brooklyn Dodgers Sunday. The Phillies have been as easy as pie for the Giants and last night's 8-3 triumph was their sixth in a row over them.

The Lip has been criticized from everyone right up to his own front office for changing the lineup around too much, but as he said: "We've got to get some runs. Therefore Ray Katt will be our catcher from now on. Bobby Hofman (who got three-for-four and knocked in four runs) will not stay on first base. Whitey Lockman is my first baseman."

That means that Wes Westrum, whose batting average is an anemic .196, goes back to the bench—the spot he was consigned to before the season opened, and Hofman to his pinch-hitting chores.

"I just wanted Lockman to take it easy for a few days," said Durocher. "I told him I wanted him to take a complete rest and not play any ball. Also, Henry Thompson will be back at third base."

Victory Edges Mac's; Play in Finals Tonight

Mac's Trading Post and Victory Market of Mount Vernon will meet for the district softball championship tonight at Galion at 8 p.m.

Victory Market extended the double-elimination tournament to the limit when it edged Mac's, 1-0, in 14 innings last night, handing the Marion entry its first tournament loss.

Ralph Johnson, who had eliminated Carl's Auto Parts on a 3-0 shutout Monday night, went the distance for the winners last night.

Both he and Bud England, Mac's hurler, allowed five hits over the 14 innings. Johnson struck out 12, England 11. The winners were charged with five errors.

Mac's had downed Victory Market, 4-2, in an earlier tournament contest.

Trabert, Seixas Seeded Tops, Off to Slow Start

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—From a Davis Cup point of view, the Americans are off to a poor start in the 74th National Doubles Tennis Tournament.

Tony Trabert of Cincinnati and Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, who eight months ago ran through Australia's Lew Hoad and Rex Hartwig in straight sets for their Davis Cup doubles victory, were unimpressive yesterday in struggling to a 9-7, 7-5, 7-5 triumph.

Though seeded first in this event, Trabert and Seixas were bothered by Richard Sorlien of Wynnewood, Pa., and Robert Forbes of Philadelphia—former team captains at Harvard and Stanford, respectively.

Persian Boy, Adopted by GI, Picked To Win Caddie Title

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A decade ago he was a hungry, homeless and frightened kid, dazed by the death of his mother and father as war surged across his native Persian hills.

Today, far around the globe in the United States, he's No. 1 choice to win the fifth national caddie golf championship.

That's the big leap made by 17-year-old Dick Hauff of Chicago, who yesterday fired 76-70—146, two over par for Ohio State University's 7,120-yard par 72 "Scarlet" course, to lead the 36-hole qualifier for the bag-toting laurels by six solid blows. Seven birdies adorned his card.

The fine score earned a $250 college scholarship for the gritty kid. He has another $250 coming from the 1952 tournament in which he was voted the outstanding sportsman. And if he survives the match play which starts today and winds up Saturday, he'll add another $1,000.

He'll enroll in Florida State College at Tallahasse in September, shortly after his 18th birthday on Aug. 31, where he hopes to add a new chapter to his colorful saga.

Dick, as a 6-year-old, was found by American soldiers as one of the waifs tossed up in the wake of war. The GI's adopted him, but his No. 1 sponsor was Maj. Frank Hauff of Chicago.

In 1944, Dick and some 2,000 soldiers sailed for America. The boy was adopted by Maj. Hauff, with whom he makes his home. He doesn't remember much about Persia (now Iran) or how his mother and father were killed.

Asked if he had any difficulty getting into this country, he grinned:

"They couldn't keep me out. I had 2,000 soldiers on my side. Some of 'em were wounded, but they got me in, and now I'm a full-fledged American citizen."

Dick is 5-5 and weighs 142. He played football for Arlington Heights High School in Chicago but likes golf, which he took up five years ago, much better. He's just like all other caddie-trained American kid, and he does his bag-toting at the Rolling Green C. C. in the Windy City.

Bob Clark of Lima, Ohio, who played in the same threesome with Hauff, had the day's high score of 107-105—212, or 66 more strokes, but Dick said:

"Bob had a lot of tough luck. He should have been much lower."

And Bob countered with:

"Dick's the best. He'll win the championship."

Hauff, in today's first round, went against James Dolan of Worcester, Mass., who qualified with 83-86—169. All 53 entrants got into the match play round, no matter what they fired in the qualifier.

Back of Hauff in the 36-hole test were Eugene Barck of New York, and Dick Burgoon of Harrisburg, Pa., who fashioned 75-77—152. John Chimenti of Harrisburg was next with 74-79—153.

Turner Rates Fight Favorite Over Andrews

Dodgers Lose As Club Wins Fifth Straight

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Three years ago Branch Rickey invited a group of sports writers to attend the 1954 World Series in Pittsburgh.

The only way Pittsburgh will see the 1954 World Series is by television But the old master's amazing assortment of greying veterans and fuzzy-cheeked youngsters apparently is going to have a lot to say about where the series will be played

The last-place Pirates own today's longest winning streak in the National League—five games, including a 4-2 triumph last night over the bewildered Brooklyn Dodgers Pittsburgh had won 9 of its last 11, the best record by a Pirate team since 1949

The Dodgers had reason to be bewildered This was their second loss in Forbes Field in seven starts this season In 1952 and 1953 they lost there only twice

Pittsburgh's streak became the longest when the Milwaukee Braves were beaten 4-1 by St Louis, ending a nine-game string The league-leading New York Giants beat Philadelphia 8-3, putting them two games in front of Brooklyn, 4½ ahead of the Braves

Max Surkont, one of the pitchers Milwaukee decided it didn't need this season, beat the Dodgers on five hits Frank Thomas drove in three of the four runs

Johnny Antonelli, also traded away by the Braves during the winter, won his 18th game against three losses for the Giants Bobby Hofman drove in four runs with a pair of homers and a single Willie Mays smashed a triple and three singles in four times up, running his hitting streak to 18 games

In the American League, the New York Yankees won their eighth in a row, 11-1 over Philadelphia, and again failed to close the three-game gap on the Cleveland Indians, who came from behind in the last of the ninth and nipped Detroit 4-3 for their seventh straight

Both Chicago teams won double-headers The Cubs whipped Cincinnati 5-0 and 6-1 The White Sox defeated Baltimore 2-0 and 3-1.

Boston edged Washington 4-3 in their private battle for fifth place in the American League

A single by Bobby Avila with the bases loaded in the ninth brought victory to the Indians after Detroit twice had held one-run leads Bob Lemon, who won his 17th game, drove in the tying run in the ninth with a single Lemon has eight victories in the last four weeks.

The Yankees turned an easy victory into a runaway at Philadelphia with six runs in the ninth inning Bill Skowron's pinch-hit, grand-slam homer was the big blow.

Billy Pierce and Virgil Trucks combined for the White Sox's victory over Baltimore Pierce, who struck out five in a row at one point, was lifted after walking two men in the eighth The Sox beat Bob Kuzava for the second time in a week in the nightcap with an 11-hit attack

A pinch homer by Joe Frazier with two aboard in the seventh brought Jim Wilson his first defeat Wilson had won eight for Milwaukee, four of them shutouts and one a no-hitter Brooks Lawrence won his 11th game since joining the Cardinals in late June

Brooklyn scored twice in the first inning on a walk, a single by Pee Wee Reese and a double by Walt Moryn. Surkont walked seven in the first five innings but only his first inning pass to Junior Gilliam hurt him

YANKEE DANDY - - - - - By Alan Maver

IRV NOREN OF THE YANKEES WHO'S NOT ONLY BEEN THE NEW YORKERS' TOP HITTER BUT HAS ALSO LED THE LEAGUE'S SMATTERS
ALL-AROUND IRV HAS DONE A GREAT JOB IN THE NOT SO FAMILIAR LEFT FIELD SPOT WHICH AT YANKEE STADIUM IS REPUTED TO BE THE TOUGHEST SUN FIELD OF ALL THE CRITICS WHO HAVE SO LONG PANNED THE TRADE WHICH BROUGHT IRV TO NEW YORK AREN'T CALLING IT A "YANKEE CLIPPING" NOW.

Marion Stock Car Racing Association To Be Reorganized

Plans have been announced to begin the Marion Stock Car Racing Association here again by Jack Chivington, association president

The group has been inactive for the past several months but Chivington said yesterday that anyone interested in using strictly stock cars at the Marion Speed Bowl should contact either him or Roy Hobson or Jack Miley

Drivers at the Speed Bowl are now racing cars with souped up motors in open competition. Under association rules, the cars must be strictly stock — without speed equipment added or a hopped up motor.

Any make or model car can run under association rules but they must have safety bars and a safety belt, Chivington said

Largest Night Audience Sees Comeback Win

PITTSBURGH (AP) — There's no pennant talk buzzing in the home of the Pittsburgh Pirates today but the loyal fans who have insisted General manager Branch Rickey will produce a winner are bursting at the seams.

The Pirates are in last place in the National League but 20,102 fans turned out last night to watch them spot the Brooklyn Dodgers two runs in the first inning, then come through with a 4-2 victory for their fifth consecutive win The crowd was the largest to watch a night home game this year

The five-game winning streak is the longest since Rickey took charge of the Pirates in 1951

The Pirates now have won nine of their last 11 games—tops since 1949 for them

The victory over the Dodgers was only the third in 13 meetings with the club this season But it was enough to send the long suffering Pirate fans home in good spirits

Manager Fred Haney took the victory in stride He isn't predicting even whether his club will get out of the cellar spot it has occupied most of the season

"We're just a relaxed ball club," he said "We're not making so many mistakes We're getting hits when they count and coming through with double plays at the right time We've got a great bunch of kids We'll ultimately field a team that will make Mr Rickey and the fans completely happy "

Dodger Manager Walt Alston somewhat dour over dropping two full games back of the pace-setting New York Giants, commented

"There's no question the Pirates are a young and hustling ball club They've improved since I last saw them They'll improve more "

Before last night's game John Galbreath, multimillionaire president of the club announced that he, Rickey, Vice President Tom Johnson and two members of Galbreath's family have put more money into the club He didn't divulge the amount but it was estimated at $250 000

The club finished seventh in 1951 Rickey's first year at the helm It was last in 1952 and 1953 Al Abrams, sports editor of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette speculated the Pirates have dropped around $1,850,000 since Rickey took over

Rickey, 72 said recently he is quitting as general manager when his five-year contract expires next November

Galbreath said he would like to have him continue, instead of serving in advisory capacity as he plans

Rickey didn't comment on Galbreath's expression of confidence And he didn't have a word to say on the Pirate winning streak.

U.S. Asks Britain To Handle Claims

LONDON (AP)—The United States has asked Britain to take over its compensation demands against Red China for the six Americans killed and wounded in the British airliner shot down July 23 near Hainan Island, official sources said last night

Informants said Washington has proposed that Britain lump its own compensation claims with those of the United States and present them to the Chinese Communists

Peiping already has rejected two direct American demands for compensation, but has offered to talk over the British claims

Red China's Only Cruiser Readied For Battle Service

HONG KONG (AP)—Independent Chinese reports published here today said Red China's only cruiser, the Chungking, has been reconditioned and rearmed and is now in the north China harbor of Tsingtao

The report aroused unusual interest because of Peiping's current campaign of threats to invade Formosa

Formerly the British light cruiser Aurora, the Chungking was given to the Chinese Nationalists after World War II

Her crew defected to the Reds from the Shanghai anchorage in 1949 but Nationalist bombers sank the ship at a mooring in Hulutao harbor, Manchuria Recently there have been reports that the Communists refloated her and took her to Port Arthur for refitting and regunning by the Russians.

50 Ohio Boys To Compete in Tractor Rodeo

Winners From County Contests Will Appear At OSU Athletic Field

COLUMBUS — Fifty boys will test their tractor driving skill in the 4-H tractor rodeo, August 28 at the Ohio State University athletic field. These boys are county winners selected from nearly 1,600 boys who enrolled in the 4-H tractor maintenance project in 57 counties.

Contestants will back a four-wheel trailer, pull a side-delivery rake through an obstacle course, and put a belt on the tractor and line it up to drive a blower or feed grinder. They are timed for each of these tests, but the main emphasis is on safe operation during the entire rodeo.

The project and rodeo trains 4-H Club members to operate farm tractors skillfully and safely. Through the rodeo club leaders hope to make safe operation a habit so there will be fewer farm tractor accidents. Tractor accidents cause more deaths than any other type of farm accident in Ohio.

W. E. Gill, Ohio State University extension agricultural engineer, says safe and efficient operation must be a habit with boys who expect to win. Some boys have been eliminated at the contest for allowing extra riders on the tractor in view of judges, even though they were not in the timing circle. Gill is chairman of the committee that conducts the contest.

In tractor club meetings, boys learn to get more power from their tractors at lower cost. Maintenance practices they learn will lengthen the life of their tractor too.

Seven Ohio Youths To Be Chosen for Exchange Program

COLUMBUS — Seven Ohio delegates will be selected this fall for the 1955 International Farm Youth Exchange program.

Twenty-four Ohio counties have sent IFYE delegates to other countries since the program started five years ago. Ohio farm youth interested in living with farm families in another country as an IFYE delegate must file an application with the Ohio State University College of Agriculture by October 1. Marion County extension agent Arthur Smith has application blanks.

Beatrice J. Cleveland, assistant state 4-H Club leader, says, "The purpose of the program is better understanding for world peace. Those of us working closely with the program feel that we certainly are making headway towards that goal. Our delegates interpret the American way of life to people in other countries; and delegates coming to America from other countries interpret their way of life to us as they live with farm families here."

Delaware Soil Conservation Work Seen on Air Tour

County's Land Practices Viewed by Farmers From Planes

Farmers and soil conservationists in Delaware County Tuesday were given a bird's eye view of the work being done in the area as they took a flying tour of the county.

Conservation experts felt the air tour would serve a useful purpose as the farmers would get an overall picture of most of the practices being performed in the county all at once.

Private planes were used for the trip which drew a crowd of about 150 from Delaware County as well as spectators from surrounding areas.

AIR CONSERVATION tours were once held in Marion County, but the practice has been abandoned in favor of tours which bring the farmers closer to the actual operation.

Delaware authorities, though, feel that by taking a farmer into the air and showing him an overall picture of an area which is using conservation methods, they may be able to demonstrate the results of good conservation practices better than on the ground.

With some 550 cooperators in Delaware County, authorities feel they can best show conservation practices from the air.

THE TOUR began in the morning and lasted all day. Planes were kept busy taking off and landing, carrying the passengers around a half-hour course which extended over most of Delaware County.

With Tuesday's crowd, which began arriving about 8 a.m., the total number of persons who have been on the air tours in Delaware County in the past five years passed the 900 mark.

About 50 miles was covered in the flight. White numerals were placed on the ground at points of interest to the conservationists.

Water, its control, and use was one of the main themes of the flight which passed over both the Delaware reservoir and the new Hoover Dam site being constructed.

ABOUT 40 FARM ponds were passed, most of which were in the reservoir area. Grass waterways, ponds, erosion spots and the difference between good and poor crops showed up well from the air.

The Delaware Conservation district has about 550 cooperators. Conservationist for the district is Gerald Solt. Officials from neighboring counties, including W. L. Williams of the Marion Conservation district and Ellwood Parrott of the local Agricultural Extension service were on hand for the tour. Also present was Richard Burwell, public relations representative of the Ohio Aviation Board, who was flying some spectators around the course.

AN AIR TOUR of Delaware County was made Tuesday by members of the Delaware County Conservation District. Participants flew around the area in planes seeing practices used in the county.

UPPER: Conservation and agriculture officials from Marion and Delaware County prepare to take off in an Ohio Board of Aviation plane. The pilot is Richard Burwell, public relations representative of the board. Preparing to enter the craft are (left to right): Gerald Solt, conservationist from Delaware; W. L. Williams, conservationist from Marion, and Paul Cunningham, Delaware County agricultural agent.

LOWER: One of the views seen in the half-hour tour around the county was this farm which was passed early in the trip.

Around the Farm Beat

The dance team of Carol Farley and Sharon Snader of Caledonia took second place in the district 4-H public speaking and talent contest last week at the Auglaize County Fair.

As a reward for their showing, the two will be alternates at the 4-H Club Congress to be held at Ohio State University in Columbus Sept. 11 to 15.

Eleven boys and girls from Marion County 4-H Clubs participated in the contest which was divided into public speech, dramatics, music, and dancing.

One of the main attractions for the youth of Marion County at the fair which starts Saturday will be demonstration periods put on by boys and girls.

Girls will have their demonstration period beginning at 8:30 Wednesday morning, and the boys will take over on the following day.

Girls will demonstrate such things as cooking, and homemaking skills, while the boys will show how to make other tasks around the farm either easier or more practical. One boy will give a demonstration of the proper method of judging eggs, both for sale and purchase.

A conference on animal nutrition will be held at Ohio State University, Nov. 10 and 11.

—:—

New pole-type farm buildings will be displayed at the Ohio State Fair Aug. 27 through Sept. 3. Included in the display will be two types of corn cribs, a bunker silo, one-car garage and full-size machine shed.

DAIRY COST CUT

Contest Helps Chick Raising, Specialist Says

Low Mortality, Feed Efficiency Called Key To Increased Profits

District winners in the 1954 Ohio chicken - of - tomorrow contest for juniors earned $10 more net profit than the average profit for all contestants. Emil Malinovsky, Ohio State University poultry specialist, believes this shows the contest is teaching profitable poultry raising.

District winners produced 61.3 pounds more meat per 100 chicks than did the average contestant. Winners produced an average of 60 pounds of meat in 10 weeks for each 100 chicks started.

Low mortality and feed efficiency are keys to increased profits. Contestants with less than five per cent death losses made four times as much profit as those with more than 10 per cent mortality. Winners lost only two per cent of the chicks they started.

Records showed that junior poultrymen who marketed 300 to 350 pounds of meat at 10 weeks for each 100 chicks started had the lowest feed cost. Their cost was 15.3 cents per pound of meat. Contestants who produced less than 200 pounds of meat per 100 chicks in 10 weeks had an average feed cost of 20 cents per pound of chicken.

The fifty contestants with the highest profits used only 2 to 2½ pounds of feed to produce a pound of chicken, while 36 contestants who lost money used more than 3½ pounds of feed per pound of meat.

It takes good breeding, feeding and care to make a profit raising broilers, according to Malinovsky. The contest is planned to develop all three he says.

Crop Residues Seen as Signs Of 'Indigestion'

CHICAGO — Unprotected corn stalks, straw or other crop residues, turned up by the plow from deep in the soil are a sign of "indigestion," reports Dr. G. H. Hoffer, agronomist of the American Potash Institute.

"This indigestion," says Hoffer, "is due to a lack of nutrients to feed the millions of soil organisms, molds, protozoa, actinomycotic, worms etc. Even soil protozoa eat protemaceous organic matter, including bacteria, which break down and rot the raw organic matter after it is turned under in the soil.

"These hard working, soil-building organizms need lots of nutrients. For instance, the living organisms in an acre plow-layer of good soil will contain as much as 400 pounds of nitrogen and upwards of 80—100 pounds of phosphate," he said.

"If these organisms are not properly fed, they can't do their important job of digesting, or rotting the organic matter. The whole soil-improving process is delayed and much of the organic matter is consumed by the slow fires of oxidation. Thus its benefit to improve soil structure is impaired," Hoffer said.

"But when sufficient fertilizer is added to plowed-under corn stalks, straw and other crop residues, the soil organisms will have plenty of nutrients to sustain them. They, eat at the first table and then go ahead full steam at their work of rotting the organic matter, and they won't rob the growing crop of any nutrients," he said.

"As these soil organisms digest the organic matter and break it down, they produce sticky substances that glue tiny soil particles together into popcornlike clusters. These clusters or aggregates, in turn, result in bigger soil pores," Hoffer said. These openings allow more air and water to enter the soil for the benefit of crops.

"Another benefit from rotting organic matter, is that it releases crop feeding nutrients for the use of growing crops. The organic matter thereby increases the efficiency of the fertilizer you add to the soil," he said.

Potato Day Slated In Wayne County

COLUMBUS—Ohio potato growers can see field demonstrations today at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station plots at the Wayne County Potato Field Day.

Eugene Wittmeyer, Ohio State University extension horticulturist says tillage, spraying and harvesting demonstrations start at 9:30 a.m. EST at Ramseyer Farms, one mile west of Smithville on Route 5. From there field day visitors will tour eight other Wayne County potato farms.

They will have lunch at the Ohio Agricultural experiment station and visit the field plots there.

Ohio Farm Econogram

Report on Prices and Economic Trends Prepared by Agricultural Extension Service

August Crop Report showed drop of five per cent in total volume of crops since July 1. Overall estimate of crops produced about sixth largest on record. Yields reduced in crops that mature after July such as corn, soybeans, spring wheat.

Corn crop prospects reduced 15 per cent during July from record 3.3 billion crop to 2.8 billion bushels. Last year's crop was 3.2 billion and averaged 3.0 billion. Ohio crop is estimated at 198 million bushels compared to 194 million last year and averaged 176 million bushels.

—:—

Soybeans: Expect record crop of 304 million bushels. Last year 262 million bushels and average 231 million bushels. Record acreage to be harvested but yield held down to 17.5 bushels by hot dry weather. Ohio crop 25.3 million bushels, over four million bushels above last year and average.

—:—

Potato crop in U. S. of 345 million bushels is eight per cent below last year and 16 per cent below average. Late states (included Ohio) five per cent under 1953 crop. Soil moisture shortage impaired growth of Ohio crop estimated at 4.2 million bushels compared to 4.8 last year and average of 6.7 million.

—:—

Wheat: Winter wheat mostly harvested before Aug. 1. U. S. crop all wheat 977.1 million bushels compared with 1,168 million bushels last year and 1,121 million bushels average. Ohio crop of 47.6 million about an average drop but 31 per cent below last year's 69 million bushels crop.

—:—

Apple crop in U. S. nine per cent above last year but four per cent under average. Ohio crop of 2.9 million bushels is 10 per cent above 1953. Control of scab is serious problem.

—:—

PEACHES: U. S. smallest crop since 1950 but Ohio crop estimated at over one million bushels up 21 per cent from last year. Lack of rainfall retarded sizing of fruit especially earlier varieties.

—:—

Farmers' share of consumer's dollar dropped to 42 cents in June; Last year was 45 cents.

Consumers still spend 25 per cent of their income (after taxes) for food. Prices received by farmers for food products in period April-June were three per cent below same period a year ago. About one per cent of this decline was passed on to consumers, rest was absorbed in higher marketing charges.

Market basket of food for family of four for a year valued at $986.57 in second quarter of 1954, compared with $1,002 in 1953, $1,028 in 1952. Meat products accounted for 28 per cent; dairy products 18 per cent; poultry eggs 10 per cent; bakery and cereals 15 per cent; fruits and vegetables 21 per cent; fats and oils four per cent and other four per cent.

—:—

CCC reports following 1954 grain crops under price support as of June 15—Wheat 39,508,365 bushels compared with 45,846,287 at same time last year. Ohio had 29,199 bushels Corn, 1953 crop 472,451,114 bushels under support on July 15—compared to 417,425,940 the year previous. Resealed (farm stored) are 9.8 million bushels of 1953 wheat; 3.4 million bushels of otsa; corn, 348,750 bushels.

Radio and Television

By JOHN CROSBY

In Defense of the Camera

J. CROSBY

This is in the nature of a progress report on television in politics. Virtually the first television program I ever saw was in 1940 when NBC, experimentally telecast from the Republican National Convention in Philadelphia. There were almost no sets available and just about the only way you could see the telecast was to go over to NBC and watch it on a couple of experimental sets there.

There wasn't much to see either. Ben Grauer had one camera, a table and a couple of chairs and not much else. He would go on the convention floor, bag a reluctant Senator and drag him back to his table - and - chair arrangements for an interview. The reluctance to appear was understandable. Television had an audience of just about nobody and senators don't like to waste time on such a small crowd.

WELL, TIME PASSED. The Kefauver hearings were held before an audience of millions. Then the 1952 conventions, crawling with TV technicians and reporters. This time, far from being reluctant, the senators practically had to be kept away from the cameras with baseball bats. They'd show up, statement in hand, in full makeup all ready to go on.

Well, sir, more time passed. There came the McCarthy hearings before another audience of millions. Then just the other day Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) ruled that radio and television would be barred from the McCarthy censure hearings. Again we find the senator reluctant. We seem to have come full circle.

But, of course, this new senatorial reluctance stems from entirely different reasons. Now it is not because the audience is so small but because it is so large. Television, it is feared, might turn the McCarthy hearings into another circus and the Senate has had enough of circuses for the time being.

THERE'S NO DOUBT in my mind that the McCarthy hearing was a circus all right or that it did grave damage to the prestige of the United States Senate and to the personal prestige of many of the individual senators involved.

But I cling to the belief that it was the senators who made it a circus and that television simply recorded the circus. That the presence of TV influenced the behavior of the senators and particularly the duration of the hearings there can be no doubt.

No doubt TV will always influence the behavior of senators but not necessarily always for the bad. As a matter of fact, it may already have had a salutory effect.

The Senate committee investigating the charges against McCarthy has already decreed that this hearing will follow rules of evidence and maintain the decorum of a court of law. Television, of course, can't claim all the credit for bringing about this welcome shift in the behavior of congressional committees, but it surely can claim some of it.

WHEN SEN. McCARTHY, for example, told Secretary Stevens that he couldn't be expected to know about "the dirty politics we play down here,' the remark may not have caused a tremor among the case - hardened reporters and politicians in the hearing, but it certainly caused some tremors in millions of citizens who were as unaware as Secretary Stevens that "dirty politics" was such a joking matter.

As a medium of education—not necessarily pleasant education — TV has no equal and in this way it can't fail to do some good.

The Watkins ruling barring TV and radio has aroused a storm of what I consider justifiable protest among networks and stations. Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System, has called the ruling "grossly discriminatory" since the press will be allowed and TV and radio won't.

Actually CBS didn't carry any of the large coverage of the McCarthy hearing. In this case, I believe Dr. Stanton is not necessarily trying to get CBS cameras into the hearing, but is rather endeavoring to win for the network the right to determine for itself whether it will or will not cover the hearing. I believe they're entitled to that right.

THE CIRCUS ASPECT of televised congressional hearings is, I am convinced, a passing phase anyhow. Long before TV came along, the press, after all, turned the Scopes trial into a circus, too. Since that time, both press and public have grown a lot more sophisticated. In time a televised congressional hearing will attract exactly as much attention as it deserves — and not one bit more or less.

Senate Okays Bill Admitting Ohioan's GI Bride Into U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed and sent to the White House a bill to permit an Ohioan to bring his GI bride from Austria to this country even though government doctors say she has tuberculosis.

All that remains to allow Earl Strickland, 26, to take his wife, Gertrud, 23, to Waverly, Ohio, is President Eisenhower's signature on the bill.

Strickland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Strickland, say they "desperately" need the young couple to help them operate their 233-acre farm near Waverly, in Pike County.

Normally, the foreign wife of a U. S. citizen is forbidden entry into this country if she has tuberculosis.

But Joseph Strickland and his wife, Rebecca, insisted that "competent physicians" were consulted after a spot was found on her lung and "have advised there is nothing wrong with Mrs. Strickland."

Rhodes Seeking To Win Independent Vote From Lausche in November Race

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democrats appear confident that Gov. Frank J. Lausche can win a fifth term despite Republican strategy aimed at upsetting that confidence.

The governor reports warm receptions in personal appearances at county fairs and various ceremonial functions in advance of more strenuous campaigning.

Besides re-electing a governor, leaders in his party expect to make gains in the Nov. 2 voting on the record of Democratic strength in non-presidential election years.

Reports from Dayton indicate busy Democratic workers seem sure they can wrest the third district congressional seat in Montgomery and Butler counties from a Republican. They expect other gains elsewhere.

But a Republican plan, if successful, could dash those hopes.

State Auditor James A. Rhodes, Lausche's Republican opponent, tipped the plan during a precedent-sitting call with his family on President Eisenhower at the White House.

Rhodes said he told the President about the Ohio situation that led to appointment of a Democrat to replace the late Sen. Robert A. Taft often called "Mr. Republican."

"In general," Rhodes reported, "we talked about how important it is to the President to have a Republican as governor. We just can't have that situation (appointment of a Democrat) arise again. We agreed that we have to have people in the Senate who will aid President Eisenhower."

Lausche appointed a fellow Cleveland Democrat, Thomas A. Burke, to Taft's seat. Burke now seeks election to the last two years of Taft's six-year term over Rep. George H. Bender (R-Ohio) of Cuyahoga County's 23rd District.

Some Washington Republicans had hoped because of Lausche's expressed admiration for Taft, that the governor would name a Republican. The Burke appointment surprised them. Burke completed their disenchantment by criticizing the Eisenhower program although refusing to upset the close Senate political balance of power.

Now the Administration appears ready to drive home a pertinent election reminder to Ohio Republicans. It stems from claims of analysts that Lausche owes a large measure of his succees at the polls to Republicans who voted for him. As proof, they point to Lausche's 1952 victory margin of 425,000 voted while Eisenhower was carrying the state by 500,000 in a GOP sweep.

If the GOP can woo those Republicans back into the fold, the feeling is that it would brighten the chances of Rhodes and other party candidates for victory despite the odds.

Eisenhower has called for election of a Republican - dominated Congress. The national speakers also can be expected to use effective reminders for Ohio Republicans who voted for Lausche to dens him another chance for an appointment like that of Burke.

Rhodes insists his prospects are good. Confidents of Lausche say he has told them that he feels differently about this election than any other. But the governor has declined to say for publication what he means.

Senate Okays Farm Bill In Post-Midnight Session

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farm legislation calling a halt to rigid, high price supports headed for a White House welcome after a hectic dispute that route disgruntled senators from bed early today.

The measure finally passed 44-28 on a postmidnight roll call, climaxing a 14½-hour session. Among other provisions, it grants the Eisenhower administration's request for flexible authority to deal with farm supports and surpluses.

House Acts Swiftly

The House passed the bill by a standing 208-47 unrecorded vote yesterday. Supporters had hoped to get it through the Senate in much the same way.

But after a siege of highly critical speeches, mainly from the Democratic side, midnight neared with many Republicans absent. GOP Leader Knowland of California asked for a recess and a showdown in the morning.

Sen. Russell (D-Ga), bitter opponent of flexible and lower price supports, protested furiously. He demanded a test vote on Knowland's request to quit without a vote.

Call for Senators

This brought angry exchanges and lengthy explanations from Knowland and Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas while their assistants put in emergency calls for absent senators.

Knowland insisted he believed there had been an informal agreement for no record votes during the night. Johnson conceded that Knowland had proposed this but said he had control of only his own vote and that any senator could demand a record vote.

Apparently satisfied that he had mustered enough supporters of the bill, Knowland agreed to the roll call. It moved at a slow pace past midnight. Finally Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) employed a parliamentary tactic to end the stalling for late arrivals.

Final Test Results

On the final test 31 Republicans and 13 Democrats voted for the compromise bill worked out by Senate and House conferees. Five Republicans, 22 Democrats and 1 Independent shouted no.

Most of the criticism from opponents, including Senators Kerr (D-Okla), Johnston (D-SC), Kefauver (D-Tenn), Morse (Ind-Ore) and Young (R-ND), centered upon authority for flexible and lower supports on basic crops and dairy products.

They predicted these would sharpen the downtrend in farm incomes and help elect a Democratic majority in Congress this year.

The compromise measure allows sliding-scale supports of 82½ to 90 per cent of parity (government-set "fair" price) on cotton, wheat, corn, rice and peanuts for next year's crops.

The bill as passed also retains authority of secretary of Agriculture Benson to hold supports for butter, cheese, milk and dairy products at the reduced level of 75 per cent of parity.

Also approved with little dispute was the administration proposal to set aside 2½ billion dollars worth of farm surpluses for foreign or domestic relief, barter and other outlets.

anti-Communist effort under existing laws.

The Senate bill, first passed last week 85-0, was revised in the House Monday after administration prodding to take out the part making membership in the Communist party illegal

The House substituted a provision to deprive the party of all its rights, privileges and immunities under the law. Those would include the right to sue in the courts, enter into contracts and appear on election ballots.

But when the measure came back to the Senate yesterday, Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) assailed it as "a powder-puff approach." He said it left the party membership untouched.

Author of the original Senate amendment to outlaw Communist party membership, Humphrey offered the same provision again Over the objections of Republican leaders, it was added to the House bill by a vote of 41-39.

The combination measure then shot back to the House on a vote of 81-1. The House handed the administration its second setback of the day by approving the latest Senate version 208-100. It did so by adopting a motion of Rep. Dies (D-Tex), instructing House members of a conference committee to accept the Senate amendments.

House Republican Leader Halleck of Indiana later told newsmen, however, that the instruction was not binding and he felt there still was a chance to cut out the provision making Communist party membership a crime.

While the outlawing bill was snagged in controversy, the Senate passed another measure yesterday to permit the government to bar suspected subversives from defense plants.

It also voted to deny pensions to federal officials, including present and former members of Congress, who are convicted of "misuse" of office. It placed this elaboration on a House bill designed originally to deprive Alger Hiss of retirement benefits.

Hiss is the former State Department staff member now serving a prison term for falsely denying he gave government secrets to a Communist spy ring.

Practical Nurses Group Plans New Organization

A new division of the Practical Nurse Association of Ohio, Inc, which is in the progress of organization, will include Marion and five surrounding counties.

Practical nurses in Marion, Wyandot, Crawford, Union, Delaware and Morrow Counties are eligible for membership in Division 7 of the state organization if they meet qualifications. Mrs. Mary Bassett, state membership chairman, may be contacted at the Hotel Harding during this week. State headquarters for the organization are at 1405 W. Jefferson St., Springfield.

The state organization which has 1,319 members, will present a licenser bill to the state legislation in January. Of the 48 states, Mrs. Bassett said, Ohio is one of six which does not have a licenser for practical nurses.

Police Capture Youngstown's 'Dynamite Kid'

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Nineteen-year-old Michael J. (Mickey) Carney, Youngstown's "dynamite kid," hunted for more than a month by Ohio and Pennsylvania authorities, was captured today at his home here.

Police Chief Paul Cress said the youth was wanted for questioning in a series of holdups in the western Pennsylvania - eastern Ohio area. One of these was the armed robbery of a drive-in theater near New Castle, Pa.

He was dubbed the "dynamite kid" because he threatened to blow up not only himself but anyone who attempted to capture him, with dynamite.

Police picked up Carney's trail early this morning when they found a stolen auto at the rear of a filling station not far from the Carney home.

Police surrounded the house, then entered. They found the youngster hiding in a second-floor bedroom. He gave up without a struggle.

Liquor

Assistant Atty. Gen. Thomas Lloyd, representing the liquor department, claimed Kocevar was in hiding in an attempt to avoid questioning by his immediate superior.

Kocevar's counsel, Charles Schnur of Akron, said:

"If Kocevar is guilty of misconduct in office, that alone should be the reason for his separation. The decent, honorable thing to do is reinstate him and immediately file charges against him for his removal. If Chief Allen has evidence of misconduct hinted at during this hearing, he then will have a chance to prove it."

Department Enforcement Chief Edward J. Allen had told the commission he felt as early as last July 12 that he had enough evidence to warrant Kocevar's dismissal and recommended it to Liquor Director Anthony A. Rutkowski.

2 Fail To Appear

Two Toledo men failed to appear at the commission hearing yesterday. The commission said subpenas were mailed to them Aug. 6. The two are Roy Kerr and James Duggan, who the state says met Kocevar on his trip to Antigua in the British West Indies in the spring of 1952.

Commission officials said mail service of a subpena does not constitute a legal demand for a person's appearance to testify and that no action against Kerr and Duggan is likely. The two were unidentified further.

Lloyd accused Kocevar of a "willful absence because he was unwilling at the time to answer Chief Allen's questions."

He said:

"It is inconceivable to me that with every Ohio newspaper, radio and television station asking 'Where is John Kocevar?', that Kocevar had no knowledge that he was wanted for questioning. He defied his superiors. This is an actual and substantial thumbing of his nose at authority."

Stayed at Grafton

Kocevar maintained he was at the home of his parents-in-law at Grafton, Ohio, and did not read newspapers or listen to the radio.

His wife, Rita, testified that she was protecting her husband's health in early July when she shunted aside several telephone calls from Allen who tried to contact Kocevar.

Kocevar said he was suffering from abnormal lung, gastro-intestinal and kidney conditions at the time he applied for sick leave June 30.

Earl Sites, personnel officer for the liquor department, testified that in his experience employes never were notified of departmental approval or disapproval of their sick leave applications.

Kocevar said that in his seven years with the department employes never had been required to have prior approval before taking sick leave.

indicated an injury to the brain or the spinal cord. I was examined by Dr. Charles Elkins, who found evidence of a definite injury to my spinal cord. These injuries were inflicted upon me by the murderer of my wife and for a time rendered me unconscious.

I have told the police and other officials who questioned me all I know about the murder of my wife. I have done this freely and willingly because I am more interested in the capture of my wife's murderer than any other person on this earth. I loved my wife; we rejoiced that we were to have a second child, all the scandal and gossip to the contrary.. We had even given our unborn child a name and had named it Stephen Allen. The last three months of our married life was perhaps among the happiest that we enjoyed together.

Rips Cleveland Police

I related all I knew to the coroner, the police of Bay Village, the detectives from the county sheriff's office and the police of the City of Cleveland Some of the police from Bay Village and County Detective Carl Rossbach and Deputy Sheriff David Yettra seemed to be genuinely interested in solving the crime but the Cleveland police seemed to have made up their minds that I committed the crime and concentrated in solving the crime by attempting to secure a confession from me.

I was questioned on July 4th and 5th by a number of officers. On Thursday, Detective Rossbach and Yettra questioned me for three and one-half hours. This was in my room and no other person was present except officer Drenkhan, of the Bay Village police force.

On Friday, July 19th, I went to my room with Mr. Rossbach, Mr. Yettra, and Coroner Gerber and reenacted for them all my actions of the evening of July 3rd and the morning of July 4th. They examined me with the greatest care and without any interference on the part of anyone. This activity lasted about four hours.

Lengthy Questioning

After that they asked me to go to the sheriff's office and make a written statement, I agreed, and the next morning, July 10th, I arrived at the sheriff's office at 8 o'clock and remained there until almost 5:00 p. m. without eating lunch. I was questioned by Mr. Rossbach, Mr. Yettra, Asst. County Prosecutors Parrino and Bauer, and Detectives Schottke and Garreau, of the Cleveland police department.

I made a long written statement which is a matter of record and is in the possession of the sheriff of this county.

On July 22, 23 and 26, the coroner held a public inquest in the gymnasium in Normandy School in the City of Bay Village. All the television stations, radio stations, newspapers from Cleveland and other cities had representatives there, both reporters and photographers.

I was informed, and did not have to be informed because I knew it, that inasmuch as I had cooperated with the police and given them my statements and in view of the unwarranted vicious and unfavorable publicity that I had received and the editorials that had been written about me, one of which called upon the police to give me the third degree, I would be justified in claiming my constitutional privileges.

'Hostile Scoffing Crowd'

This I refused to do, and on July 23rd and 26th, knowing that I would be subjected to unfriendly examination, I waived all my rights and appeared before a hostile, scoffing crowd and for five and one-half hours I answered under oath every question that was asked me.

From July 4th to July 30th I lived at my father's house. I was barred from my own home and the home of my son, and have been ever since barred from it.

I was arrested at 10:00 p. m. and brought before a magistrate that has now been determined to be a biased and prejudiced person.

I was deprived of counsel and was thrown into jail, and when my attorneys appeared at the jail they were refused admission. I have since learned that the timing of my arrest and the reason that I was held incommunicado from my attorneys was because someone had the idea that I was addicted to dope and all that had to be done to solve the crime and get a confession from me was to hold me until the craving for dope would break me down.

During the succeeding week I was spirited out of the jail at night, taken to the City Hospital, where I was examined by Dr. Braden in the presence of Dr. Greene, the medical officer of the Cleveland police department. I am informed that this was on the order of the chief of the Cleveland police department.

During the week after my arrest I was questioned by relays of Cleveland detectives hour after hour, as long as 12 hours at a stretch, and the entire questioning had only one purpose, to secure a confession from me of a crime I did not commit. It was only after hours and hours of such questioning and when the questioning became insulting and abusive that I refused to submit further.

I am not guilty.

TELLS OF SHEPPARD LOVE AFFAIR. Auburn-haired Susan Hayes leaves the grand jury room in Cleveland after talking about her west coast love affair with Dr. Samuel Sheppard, 30-year-old osteopath charged with the July 4th murder of his wife, Marilyn. The grand jury later returned a first degree murder indictment against the handsome "Dr. Sam."

Sheppard

The osteopath and his parents displayed no emotion as handcuffs were slipped over his husky wrists last night.

His mother rushed to fill a tan paper shopping bag with a red sweat shirt, blue hobby trousers and other clothing. She tucked in some oranges and bananas.

Sheppard kissed his mother as they stood in the front hall. His father grasped his hand and said:

"Take care of yourself, son."

At the county jail, Sheppard showered, changed clothing and was returned to his old cell on the fourth floor.

Defense Atty. William J. Corrigan, waiting for him, complained that "it was unnecessary to pick him up now," since he was out on bond.

Corrigan, whose petition for bail won Sheppard's release Monday, said he would seek release on bail again at the arraignment.

Atomic

says a favorable vote by the AFL workers—members of the Atomic Trades and Labor Council—could be expected to have a marked effect on the 4,500 CIO Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers members.

Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Co., which operates all four plants for the Atomic Energy Commission, has always granted identical increases to both the CIO and AFL. Thus, says the observer, if the AFL accepts the 6 cents, "the CIO will have a lot of arguments pulled right out from under them."

The CIO workers operate plants producing the nation's entire supply of uranium-235, used in hydrogen and atomic weapons. They also rejected the 6-cent offer, and during the four months since negotiations started they struck once, from July 7-11.

Other Strikes Authorized

The AFL workers, in two less critical but still vital plants, also authorized a strike but their leaders never called one.

Both unions at present have scales ranging from $1.58 to $2.40 an hour. The increase is sought to offset a 23 per cent increase in rent recently placed on government-owned housing here.

Asked his reaction to the AFL voting, President Emerson Pownall of CIO Local 288, said: "We've turned it down. I don't know what's going to be the outcome of the vote taken by the AFL. But I don't know why they'd accept it."

At the outset, the CIO asked a 21-cent hourly raise, the AFL 19 cents When negotiations collapsed in April, the President's panel stepped in. It returned its proposal for a 6-cent raise in June.

Reese Committed To Lima Hospital

COSHOCTON, Ohio (AP) — Cletus Reese, 36-year-old recluse accused of murdering three men whose bodies were found on his farm near here, was committed to Lima State Hospital for the criminal insane yesterday.

Police said Reese, who previously had spent some time in another mental hospital because of "delusions," clubbed Clyde E. Patton, Lester Melick and Paul Tish to death and buried their bodies in shallow graves on his unkempt farm.

He was charged only in Patton's death. The deaths of Melick and Tish will be presented to a grand jury for investigation next month. The bodies were found last June.

FISHING BRINGS FINE

A plea of guilty to a charge of fishing without a license resulted in a fine of $15 and costs for Cecil Christian, 39, of 318 Davids St. in Marion Municipal Court Monday. The charge was filed against Christian by John R. Waters, game protector for Marion County.

Vaccination, Diphtheria Shots Required for New Pupils in City

Pupils entering the first grade this fall in Marion city public school are required to have diptheria and smallpox immunization by the time school opens Sept. 7.

Exact requirements are: a successful small pox vaccination as evidenced by a physician's statement or a visible scar or a statement from a physician that there are medical reasons postponing the small pox vaccination; and immunization to diphtheria as evidenced by a physician's statement that the child has been inoculated against diphtheria or a statement from the physician that the child is physically unfit for the immunization.

A birth certificate or mother's certificate must also be presented for each child entering the first grade.

Further information may be obtained by phoning the pupil personnel office in the Marion City School administration building, 3-1116.

Several school boards in the county have also adopted resolutions requiring the immunization program, according to County School Superintendent D. T. Mills. Those schools which have notified the county office of their approval of the program are: Prospect, Grand Prairie, LaRue, Morral, Pleasant, Waldo, Claridon and Caledonia.

New pupils in these school districts will be required to be properly immunized for smallpox and diphtheria or show evidence that such has been accomplished satisfactorily and to have a certificate furnished by the Marion County Health Commissioner and signed by the health board or a qualified physician.

Marionite Held For Attack on Mother, Son, 3

A 23-year-old Marion man is being held on an open charge for investigation in an attack on a Marion mother and her three-year-old son last night.

The attack occurred at 8:50 p.m. as the woman was walking along in front of 258 Lincoln Ave., carrying her baby son in her arms.

She told police she heard footsteps behind her and, looking back, saw a man following her. She began to walk faster and noticed that the man's footsteps also speeded up, she said. Stopping, she stepped to the side to allow him to pass and he grabbed her son from her arms and pushed her to the ground, she said.

Both she and her son began to scream and the man attempted to silence her by putting his hand over her mouth, the woman told police.

Unable to quiet her, he then began to run away and about the same time Charles Metz of 148 Baker St and Leonard Metz ran out of the latter's residence at 258 Lincoln Ave.

Spotting the man running up the street they gave chase and Charles tackled him and threw him to the ground at Lincoln Ave and Garfield St.

He and Leonard promptly sat down on the man's arms and held him on the ground until police arrived.

Complaining of an injured foot, the man was taken to City Hospital and treated for a cut on his foot and left knee and under his chin. Returned to the police station he was identified there by the woman as the man who attacked her and her son.

Booked on a charge of intoxication, the man was being held by police today for further questioning and investigation.

Death Toll Mounts In Japan Typhoon

TOKYO (AP)—A raging tropical typhoon ripped a trail of death and destruction across southern Japan today, then swept northward toward the teeming Osaka industrial region.

Weather experts said the storm had weakened slightly and winds at the center now were perhaps 90 miles an hour.

National rural police said howling winds of more than 100 miles an hour and driving rain left 15 persons dead, 21 missing and 26 injured on the southern islands of Kyushu and Shikoku.

The storms touched off numerous landslides, toppled houses, snarled communications and flooded some villages. Rural police said 13 fishing boats have been sunk and 12 are missing.

Boy Saved by Sleep

WILMINGTON, Calif. (AP)—George Wise Jr., 10, fell asleep while reading in a back bedroom, and his mother decided not to move him to his own room.

Communities

By George Sokolsky

SOKOLSKY

Back in 1917 in Stockholm I attended a Congress of Minority Nationalities and was impressed by the fact that as small as Europe is, there were communities of men intent upon making each country smaller Each nationality sought to be a separate nation each linguistic group wanted to be distinct and autonomous because it used a different language

The United States has never formally or legally recognized any group racial religious or nationalistic as a minority group

There is no federal legislation distinguishing a minority group in the United States There has been some state legislation to that effect but it has been declared unconstitutional by the United States Supreme Court

OUR BASIC THEORY is that each individual has inalienable rights as a person not as a part of a majority or as a minority Each stands in a court of law alone as a person whose rights, privileges immunities and remedies are not to be related to groups or communities

Of course, there are violations of the law as there are violations of morals but the principle of the oneness of this nation was determined by the War Between the States and the rights of the individual have been stipulated by the Constitution and by decisions of the court

Recently Will Maslow, general counsel of the American Jewish Congress, appeared before the Jenner committee to make some recommendations as to how congressional committees should comport themselves

In the course of his statement, he said

'As part on a total community whose ultimate security depends upon the maintenance of a sound and healthy political structure, the American Jewish Congress believes that Jewish groups must share the present concern over infringements upon individual liberties . .'

WHAT IS a 'total community" in the United States? Who can speak for an entity called a 'total community" — for any such entity in the United States?

Can the American Federation of Labor speak for the 60 million workers of this country?

Can any organization speak for all the manufacturers all the retailers all the newspaper proprietors of this country?

Can the bar association speak in all respects for all lawyers?

Legally only the Congress speaks for the total American community Even if we break that total up into states, only the senators or the governors of each state can speak for the whole And yet we know that even such lawful spokesmen are constantly being challenged by associations and by individuals from each state who have contrary views

The strength of the American system is that while it presents the appearance of anarchistic individualism, through representation in Congress, the whole people join together in an orderly fashion

While no individual is required to conform to the views of another, all are obligated to obey the laws passed by Congress.

THERE ARE no Fascistic syndicates in the United States such as Mussolini set up in Italy, there are no "total communities' of majority or minority groups

It would seem to me important to make this point at the present time when certain national organizations seek to impress upon the Congress their tremendous importance

For instance, I am a Jew but the American Jewish Congress does not speak for me or for thousands of other Jews I belong to the American Jewish League Against Communism which challenges the right of the American Jewish Congress to speak for it as undoubtedly the American Jewish Committee, the Anti - Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith and countless other organizations do

None of these organizations can speak for a "total community" because there is none

The concept of a minority people of minority representation and of the rights of minorities is strictly European and undoubtedly resulted from the conquests in wars

For instance, the old Austro-Hungarian Empire was thrown together to include many nations and peoples who had a thousand or more years of wars and hatreds as a heritage We ought to have none of this in the United States

Restless Beck

By Victor Riesel

MADRID

Only when he was cooped up in some plane flying high in the European sky did Teamsters union chief Dave Beck sit still during his trek across the troubled continent In London, he made the rounds of the labor headquarters and taunted the Labor party chiefs on their junket to China What were they trying to do, he asked make a fast dollar for Britain out of trading with the enemy.

RIESEL

In East Berlin, he made the rounds as a vibrant example of the freedom the influence and the affluence of free labor in our capitalist land — sharply silhouetting the mockery of the dreary, moth-eaten starvation wage 'workers' paradise' there

In Naples he climbed Mount Vesuvius without benefit of transport leaving younger men struggling far behind him in the volcanic dust while he waited at the crater's edge standing on a ledge with nothing but 4,000 foot drops on either side

HE SAT STILL long enough in a Trans-World Airliner in which we took off from Rome for Madrid to talk about the problem far below us For weeks he had listened — interrupting only to ask questions which should have been asked by our diplomatic corps and missions which have fallen over each other for years Then he summed it all up there high over the Mediterranean

We should just let the other fellow write the rules and then play it that way If he wants it rough he called the shots

All his questions were aimed at learning the rules set by the enemy We had, for example been briefed a few days earlier, by Guido Pastore, head of the pro-American Italian labor federation

Beck had listened to the tale of woe — and then asked just how much it would take in American dollars to compete with the Soviet government on the Italian labor front

Pastore almost slid off his chair It had never occurred to him to think in these terms But here was an American labor leader who was also a successful businessman, asking a typical American question Pastore figured it would take 16 million dollars a year Well, Beck didn't fall off his chair You can't play for global stakes with white chips

NOR DID BECK exactly write a check for 16 million — although he could He went out and did a simple thing He bought a Fiat car for the little Italian Federation of Transport and Auxiliary Traffic Workers — our friends who are the counterpart in Italy of Beck's giant Teamsters Brotherhood

The next morning he presented the car in a little courtyard right down the street from Rome's Red 'Union Square" — the Piazza Del Popolo — and told the little Italian teamsters union that this was just the beginning

What had gotten Beck was the fact that this transport workers' union the only competition to the scarlet union which could tie up Italian transport at some crucial moment, did not always have carfare for its officers to take trains across the country

Its officials — on whom the U S must some day count — actually had to hitch rides or take third class compartments on slow trains while the enemy labor federation chiefs lived in luxurious apartments rode in big cars and had a huge building in the swank embassy section across from the U S Embassy and Information Service

IT REMINDED ME of British Guiana where our friends could not keep up the payments on a union owned jeep and had to surrender it Result was that the enemy finally captured the government and the British had to retake it with Her Majesty's warships

Beck asked the Italians how many transport organizers would be needed to retake the field from the enemy. They could do it with eight and asked Beck to underwrite them He soon will reveal his plans for European labor leaders, who want help to organize

Not only will such aid help beat off the saboteurs, but it will introduce hardheaded, non - political unionism to Europe No politics, no socialism, just bread and butter Beck warned

It will also help us win friends by winning a decent wage for those kicked around by those Italian industrialists, who seem to care little except for a fast buck. Such a program will help take many an Italian family out of the caves and the shacks you see clinging to the ancient Roman viaducts on the city's outskirts

From Europe Dave Beck will take time out for the AFL convention in Los Angeles next month—and then he will fly from the West Coast around the world asking the same questions in Asia

Quarrel with him on the home front if you will, but at least we'll get something done on the world front Maybe we'll win one or two skirmishes That would be a nice feeling

Mare Island

By Hal Boyle

VALLEJO, Calif

Did you ever hear of a community raising $200 000 to throw a birthday party for a naval shipyard'

It is a bit unusual But the citizens here have chipped in that amount to celebrate next month the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Mare Island Naval Base by brusque David G Farragut later to become America's first admiral

HAL BOYLE

The long low island at the northern end of San Francisco Bay had been bought by the Navy for $83 491, and was the first link in its chain of defenses of the Pacific Coast

FARRAGUT, who had joined the Navy at the age of 10 was 59 years old then He had no way of knowing that within another decade he would become the hero of the battle of Mobile Bay eternally famous for his command "Damn the torpedoes—full speed ahead"

But Mare Island—named after a lady horse that fell off a flatboat and swam ashore—has produced many another hero since Farragut in the last 100 years Through five wars it has built 490 naval vessels repaired thousands of others served for a century as a major base of America's sea might

Today it serves the same durable purpose It is the home of a great portion of our "mothball fleet" carefully cocooned against rust and ready on short notice to prowl the sea lanes again

The entire community is proud of Mare Island's long proud record It launched the dreadnaught battleship California — and also Elsa Maxwell Elsa came here as a refugee from the 1906 San Francisco fire and earthquake, and, according to local legend, immediately organized a party

Other Mare Island 'firsts'

The first aircraft landing deck in the Navy was built here on the U S Pennsylvania in 1911

So was the first Navy oil tanker the Navy's first oil-burning vessel, its first all-welded hull its first electrically propelled ship (later it became the Langley our first aircraft carrier) and the largest submarine ever built the old Nautilus The destroyer Ward, built here in 17 record-breaking days in 1918 sank a Japanese submarine at Pearl Harbor

THE MARE ISLAND yard didn't exactly launch bandmaster Paul Whiteman but he once served as a Navy musician here

During the last World War the shipyard—its shops are among the largest on earth—employed 40 000 workers including 9 000 Rosie the Riveters and subcontracted assembly jobs through 50 communities as far East as Denver

Since Farragut founded it the yard has grown from 1,000 acres to 2 446, and today is perhaps the largest naval installation in the world Its equipment has risen to a book value of $180 000,000 Its 13 000 employes have an annual payroll of $55,000,000.

EACH YEAR its schools graduate 600 trained technicians with the skill to keep on turning out the long line of ships that have kept America's shores inviolate for nearly a century and a half

But to me one of the most human factors about this sprawling yard is that it not only built the ships that carried men into battle for their country—it also in post-war years made a great record as a naval rehabilitation center for amputees It taught them to walk on new hopes and new legs

The war-scarred men who were helped here to rebuild their broken lives are certainly among the brightest testimonials to Mare Island's first century To repair a ship is an achievement certainly, but to repair a man is a glory.

County Dentists Discuss Plan For New Clinic

Plans for the coming year, when the Marion County Dental Clinic will be inaugurated at the new city hospital, were made Monday night at the Hotel Harding when the Marion County Dental Clinic Association met.

At the meeting the constitution and by-laws of the clinic association were presented and discussed.

The clinic will be conducted in the new hospital for the dental needs of children of indigent families in Marion and Marion County and to promote dental health education in the area schools. Any organizations interested in sponsoring the new dental clinic may contact Dr. Bertram Goodman. The next meeting, Oct. 4, will be open to representatives of organizations interested in the work of the clinic.

Attending the Monday night meeting were Dr W. N Price, Dr Bertram Goodman, Dr Carl Sheehe, Dr A J. Wagner, and Dr Carrol Conklin. As guests of the association, representatives of various organizations interested in sponsoring the work of the clinic, also attended They were: Mrs George Seligman, representing the Council of Jewish Women; Miss Lodemia Weaver, Marion County Welfare Department, Mrs. Catherine Kelly, Marion County Health Department; Miss Jessie Lindsey, city union of the King's Daughters; Miss Kathleen M Thomas, city health department, and Mrs Phillip Boyd for the Junior Service Guild.

Rabies Epidemic Hits Houston, Tex.

HOUSTON, Tex (AP) — A US Public Health Service official says Houston and Harris County's rabies problem, in terms of incidence, is the worst he has ever seen in this country.

"I feel very strongly right now that a mass immunization campaign must be made," Dr. Ernest S Tierkel of the health service's communicable disease center at Atlanta, Ga., said yesterday.

From Jan 1 through July 30 rabid animals analyzed at the city health laboratory totaled 370 Dogs accounted for 95 per cent of the animals.

Each American has an average of 39 horsepower available for his use today compared with half a horsepower per capita in 1899.

Yukon Sourdough Makes First Trip Out After 55 Years

VANCOUVER, B C. (AP)—Fifty-five years ago Harry Lehmon left gaslit London, England, for the Yukon to prospect for gold. He never left the Yukon until this week.

So how does modern living look to him?

He's wary of telephones, not oversold on elevators, thinks it must be costly to keep street lights burning, and is very impressed with a tiled bath as an improvement on his "old round tin bathtub."

Lehmon, 77, was coaxed aboard an airliner at Dawson City, Y. T., by a Vancouver newspaperman to attend the current sourdough convention here.

2,000 Head of Stock Die in Montreal Fire

MONTREAL (AP) — A two-hour fire destroyed a hog and sheep stable in the Montreal Stockyards last night, killing some 2,000 squealing animals awaiting slaughter and causing damage estimated at more than a million dollars

Firemen feared the heat-maddened hogs, sheep and calves inside the two-story brick building would escape and run beserk through the yards but the building collapsed on top of them.

Engineer Requests Early Petitions on Street, Sewer Jobs

Marionites wanting street or sewer improvement projects started on their streets next summer should turn in petitions asking for the improvements this fall.

City Engineer John V. Ruth issued this statement today and pointed out that the sooner the petitions are turned in the earlier the projects may be started and completed next spring

He further pointed out that after the petitions are submitted they must be submitted to City Council for further action after which ordinances or resolutions authorizing the petitions must be adopted "Meanwhile, the engineering department must draw up the plans and specifications for the projects Finally bids must be advertised for and contracts awarded the winning bidder

All this means that projects desired completed next summer should be petitioned for within the next few weeks, Ruth said. Otherwise the projects may not be completed next summer and some possibly won't be started, he warned.

Committee Fee Refused By McCarthy's Counsel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Counsel for Sen McCarthy (R-Wis) rejected today the fee — perhaps as large as $10 000 — a Senate committee investigating charges against McCarthy had set aside for him.

"It is not consonant to be serving the employ of the committee that's trying Sen McCarthy," Edward Bennett Williams, the Washington lawyer who will defend McCarthy, said in an interview

The committee itself, created to examine charges that McCarthy should be censured for conduct allegedly unbecoming a senator, hired former Republican Congressman E Wallace Chadwick, 67, of Chester, Pa as its counsel, to start work immediately.

Speeds Up Action

On another front the Senate Investigations subcommittee scheduled morning and afternoon meetings in its efforts to hammer out a verdict on the already completed McCarthy-Army hearings

Chairman Mundt (R-SD) told the Senate last night he expects to file a report before the Senate recess, which may be by week's end But since the Senate "has the habit of recessing rather spontaneously," as Mundt put it, he got Senate permission to file during recess if necessary

Looking toward the investigation of the latest charges against him, McCarthy requested the special committee to pay for a lawyer of his own choosing But Williams said

"You can't be McCarthy s counsel and employed by the committee too with propriety"

The lawyer declined to discuss whether he might get a fee from other sources

Confers With Cohn

McCarthy and Roy M Cohn, the young New York lawyer who was a principal along with him in the 3-day McCarthy-Army hearings this spring, conferred here yesterday Cohn recently resigned as chief counsel to the Investigations subcommittee

McCarthy told a reporter Cohn "might be down here' to lend a hand at the defense counsel s table during the censure inquiry, now scheduled to start here Monday, Aug 30

Sen Watkins (R-Utah), who who heads the special committee announced Chadwick's appointment yesterday to serve at a pay rate of $11,600 a year The senator said he is satisfied the former House member and former judge of the Delaware County (Pa) Orphans Court "hasn't any decided stand" as either a defender or critic of McCarthy to disqualify him.

Declaring the committee had insisted its counsel must be both able and impartial, Watkins told a news conference "We searched and searched, and we found him"

Chadwick, stepping from the train suitcase in hand in Washington early today, said he hadn't applied for the job but called it 'a great honor"

$285 Reported Missing After Plant Break-In

Theft of $285 in a break-in at the Tecumseh Steel Products Universal Cooler Division plant at 333 Joseph St. was reported today by Marion police

Police Chief Thomas B Coon said the break-in was discovered at 5 30 a m by Clyde Wolmack, a plant guard

Investigation showed entrance was gained by scaling a fence in the northeast corner of the plant grounds prying off a screen on a cafeteria kitchen window, and entering the cafeteria

The money was taken from a locked cash register in the cafeteria after the cash drawer was apparently pried open, according to the police report

Chief Coon said police are continuing their investigation of the break-in and theft.

Gas Rate Increase Approved By Galion Council Committee

GALION — City Council at its regular meeting Tuesday night received a report from J Gerald Bonnar chairman of the utilities committee of Council that the Ohio Fuel Gas Co is justified in asking an increase at this time

This was decided by the committee Bonnar explained on the basis of the profit and loss report of the gas company Two ordinances presented several weeks ago to Council fixing the price which may be charged by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co to Galion consumers have been in the hands of the committee The one preferred by Bonnar's committee contains a fuel cost operation clause This ordinance was given its second reading at last nights meeting It would raise rates of consumers approximately 18 to 20 per cent the contract covering a four year term

The ordinance not preferred by the utilities committee was a firm rate contract and covered a two-year period Both ordinances were first presented to Council at its July 6 meeting They have been in the hands of the utility committee since that time

Third reading and vote on the ordinances will be due at the next regular meeting of Council Sept 7

The only ordinance passed by Council last night was an emergency measure transferring several funds from the hospital general fund to various other hospital funds The amount totaled $24 700 and is customary legislation at this time of year to cover general hospital business in anticipation of revenue expected from patients accounts

Firm's Officials To Take Part in Murphy Opening

Divisional and District's Managers Will Assist Local Store Head

William G. Seay, manager of the new G. C. Murphy Company store in the W. Center St. shopping center, began his career with the company 19 years ago when he was hired as an assistant manager of the Piedmont, W. Va., store.

He has served in similar capacities in stores located in Bedford, Pa., Frostburg, Md., Washington, D. C., and Fairmont, W. Va. In 1947 he was promoted to manager of a Murphy store in Westfield, N. J., and later assumed duties of manager of the Hollidaysburg, Pa., store.

In January of 1952, Seay became the assistant to H. R. Keim, divisional manager.

Assisting in the grand opening of the Marion store will be the divisional manager, Ferdinand M. Fiege, and the district manager, G. B. Shaw.

Fiege, a veteran of 31 years with the Murphy Co., began his association with the company in 1923 as an assistant manager in Etna, Pa. Later in the year he became manager of the Carnegie store and served in that position until 1925.

G. B. SHAW
District Manager

F. M. FIEGE
Divisional Manager

WILLIAM G. SEAY
Local Manager

He has been divisional manager since 1944.

Shaw, a veteran of 23 years with the company, started as an assistant manager of the Stamford, Conn., store. He later assumed similar duties in the Beaver Falls, Pa., and McKeesport, Pa., stores.

In 1936 he became manager of the Verona, Pa., store and at later dates managed stores in Erie, Pa., and Latrobe, Pa. He then was promoted to district manager of stores of the Western Ohio district in 1941.

Seay has three assistant managers assigned to his store. They are Herbert Flower, Terry R. Stadterman, and D. L. Kiser.

Flower, who is the senior assistant, has been employed by the Murphy Co. since 1947 when he began his career in Middletown. In 1949 he was transferred to Greenville, and last month was transferred to Marion.

Stadterman also joined the company in 1947, at the Turtle Creek, Pa., store. At later dates he was transferred to Murphy stores in Pittsburgh, Pa.; Columbus, Ind.; and Troy, O., before being assigned to Marion in July.

Kiser joined the company in Piqua in 1947, subsequently being assigned to stores in Troy and Indianapolis before his Marion assignment.

Andrew P. Dalbey, who started his training at Beaver Falls, Pa., in 1953, will be in charge of stockroom operations at the Marion store. Dick Keim Jr. from Erie, Pa., has been assigned to Marion as a student stockman.

Oratory Winner Talks At Galion Lions Session

GALION—Oliver (Pudge) Henkel of Mansfield, a June graduate of Mansfield Senior High School, won a Galion audience of Lions' Club members and guests here Tuesday night.

He spoke on "Courteous Motor Manners and How to Promote Them," which won him fourth place in the national oratorical contest sponsored by the Knights of Pythias Lodge recently.

The dinner-meeting of the club was held at Hotel Talbott with Jack Witter in charge of the program.

In his talk, Henkel told the group how he happened to enter the contest and the process of winning local and district contests before he entered the finals. He handled his subject of courteous motor manners from the steering wheel's viewpoint, stressing how it behaved under steady and unsteady hands, under the hands of show-off drivers and those of common sense and courtesy.

REALTORS MET

Plans were made to complete a collection of contributions for the Magnetic Springs Polio Foundation at the weekly meeting of the Marion Real Estate Board at the YMCA Monday night. The pledge will be presented to the foundation officials in the near future.

Bucyrus NYC Trainmaster's Job Abolished

BUCYRUS — The New York Central Railroad's yards in Bucyrus are without a trainmaster for the first time in about 37 years.

The position of trainmaster has been abolished and the Bucyrus territory has been taken over by Columbus and Toledo Stanley yards' trainmasters, NYC office employes announced here today.

W. N. Clark, trainmaster here for the past 11 years, has been transferred by the railroad to Toledo, where he now is trainmaster of the Lakefront Dock and Railroad Terminal Co.

Under the new setup, the territory between Bucyrus and Thurston will be under the Columbus trainmaster's supervision and the territory between Bucyrus and Toledo will be under the control of the Stanley yard trainmaster.

Formerly a trainmaster at Middleport, Clark came here in 1943, replacing E. J. Crowley, who now is superintendent at Jackson, Mich.

The first trainmaster was stationed here in 1917 during World War I. Prior to that time, an assistant superintendent was stationed here. That office was moved to Columbus shortly after the trainmaster post was established.

Harmony Marks World Church Council Assembly

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — A big Christian omnibus, loaded with assorted travelers on the Lord's highway, is rolling along fairly smoothly in this well-groomed university town.

But exactly where it's going, or whether it'll get there, nobody knows.

Up to now, the Assembly of the World Council of Churches hasn't produced any pillar-of-fire decisions, but it's doing a lot of talking, and figuring, and it has the atmosphere of big doings.

In mammoth McGaw Hall at Northwestern University, where the main meetings are held, it looks like a staff meeting of the universe, with the sages gathered to probe the mysteries.

Under the white floodlights, they sit at long tables in the great arena, fingering the dials of their earphones, tapping with pencils, occasionally scribbling a note.

Signs — reading Ethiopia, Mexico, Iran and a host of other lands — tell where the 600 voting delegates came from.

Behind them, in rows of chairs, sit 800 other nonvoting church representatives in packed rows of chairs.

And behind that, in the always-full bleachers, are some 4,000 onlookers.

At the front hangs a great blue-and-white banner as high as a building, with the symbol of the world body — a ship with a cross as its mast.

On one side of the stage, in glass-enclosed booths, is the battery of translators, who relay the words of the meeting over the earphones in the varied tongues of these varied Christians.

There is a similar scene, although on not so large a scale, a couple of miles away in Chan Auditorium, where visitors meet to hear famed churchmen speak.

Between these two centers of contemplation flows a two-way stream of 20 chartered buses. The ride is free.

Scores of other buildings on the Northwestern University campus—dormitories, sorority houses, administration buildings, have turned into part of this temporary headquarters of the council.

There are mimeograph shops, conference rooms, exhibition halls, press rooms and a special 4-line telephone board set up to serve the complex operation of the meeting.

It is being covered by some 600 news and religious press reporters, a number second only to that which covered the 1952 Republican convention. Western Union reports they're sending out more than 100,000 words a day.

It all costs money — a cash outlay of $385,000 which was provided by individuals, foundations and members of the council.

PACK BOXES FOR INDIANS

UPPER SANDUSKY — In a special meeting at 4 p.m. today in St. Paul Lutheran Church here, the Junior Mission Band will pack Christmas Boxes with soap, combs, tooth brushes and school supplies. Members will donate the articles for the benefit of children of their own age group on the reservations.

Citizens for Ike Group To Aid Bender in Race

WASHINGTON (AP)—Citizens for Eisenhower announced yesterday that the organization will give "enthusiastic" support to Rep. Bender (R-Ohio) in his senatorial race against Sen. Burke (D-Ohio).

James L. Murphy, chairman of the Citizens, said in a statement the group would work for Bender "inasmuch as President Eisenhower has indicated his interest in the success of George Bender's candidacy."

Murphy said the national leadership of the Citizens had been advised that Ohio Citizens for Eisenhower were forming committees to push for Bender. He promised the national group's support.

Anti-Red Bill Denounced By Civil Liberties Union

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Civil Liberties Union has denounced congressional bills to ban the Communist party in the United States.

Patrick Murphy Malin, the organization's executive secretary, said in a statement yesterday the ban would drive Communists into "clandestine channels more difficult to police."

RUBBER UNION LOSES

WILLARD, Ohio (AP) — The CIO United Rubber Workers lost a recognition vote today at the Pioneer Rubber Co. in plants here and at nearby Attica. In balloting supervised by the National Labor Relations Board, Pioneer production workers turned down the union's attempt to win collective bargaining recognition by a vote of 342 to 55. Pioneer, which manufactures rubber gloves and toy balloons, has about 100 non-prodution workers not affected by the vote.

Toledo Granted Fourth TV Channel by FCC

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Communications Commission yesterday added TV Channel 79 to the assignments at Toledo, Ohio.

The action gives Toledo three commercial channels and one educational channel.

The addition was made at the request of Woodward Broadcasting Co., which said it intended to apply for Channel 79 at once.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels tilted the stock market slightly lower today in moderate activity.

Utilities and producers of building materials also tended to lose ground while motion picture and rubber stocks improved. The rest of the market was irregular.

Trading began at a brisk pace with prices thoroughly mixed. Then the pace slackened as steels, aircrafts and oils weakened. Slowly the market started to recover from its lowest point and by early afternoon was only narrowly depressed.

Sperry Corp. jumped more than four points. Others on the rise included Chrysler, Packard, Goodrich, Northrop Aircraft, Lockheed, General Dynamics, General Electric, Kennecott, Dome Mines, American Cyanamid, Baltimore & Ohio, Northern Pacific, Standard Oil (NJ) and Loew's.

Declining were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, American Tobacco, Allied Chemical, American Telephone, Phelps Dodge, Southern Railway and U.S Gypsum.

Raymond Staff Completed for 1954-55 Year

RAYMOND — Vacancies on the faculty of Northwestern Local School have been filled.

Mrs. Flora Payne, home economics and social studies teacher for several years here, has been appointed high school principal in addition to her teaching duties.

New elementary instructors hired this year include: Miss Joyce O'Neil, of Marysville, former remedial teacher at Galion, first grade; Miss Joann Herd, formerly a teacher in northern Ohio, third grade; and Mrs. Joan Kirby, formerly a Richwood teacher, fourth and fifth grades.

New high school teachers are: Alfred Kahler, who taught last year at Ada, social studies; Mrs. Marjorie Painter, of Delaware, formerly a teacher in the Dayton public schools, English and speech; Mrs. Catherine Sorensen, of near Jerome, formerly a teacher at University School, Columbus, and in Upper Arlington, commercial studies; Mrs. Charlotte Dunham, of Marysville, and a graduate of Otterbein College in Westerville last spring, grade and high school music. Mr. Kahler will reside in West Mansfield where he serves as minister of the Baptist church. Mrs. Dunham will live in Marysville where her husband is employed as a teacher.

Northwestern School officially opens Labor Day, Sept. 6, when faculty members and other employes meet for a planning session in the forenoon at the Raymond building. Bus drivers are requested to meet at 8 a.m. while faculty members will meet at 9 a.m.

Pupils will assemble for the first session Tuesday, Sept. 7, from 9 until 11 30 a.m. The first full session will be Wednesday, Sept. 8. The lunch program will begin Wednesday and an attempt will be made to continue serving twenty-five cent lunches.

ATTEND AFL CONVENTION

Carroll W. Davidson and Earl Bryant, president and vice president of Marion Central Labor Union were among nearly 800 delegates who attended the Ohio State Division of the American Federation of Labor convention last week at Cleveland. It was the largest AFL state meeting ever held in Ohio and sessions during the four days, Monday through Wednesday, were held at the Hollenden Hotel. The Davidsons spent the week-end at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Houser, at Bay Village, and returned to Marion Monday.

Enrollment at Meeker School Expected To Exceed Records

Enrollment this year at Meeker School is expected to be up about 20 over last year's figures, Superintendent Walker Huffman said today.

Some 200 students are expected to file into the school building on Tuesday, Sept. 7, first day of school. School will open at the regular hour, 8:45 a.m., and dismiss at noon. A teachers' meeting will follow at 1 p.m.

The teaching staff has been completed with only one new addition to the faculty. Mrs. Betty May of Silver St. was hired to teach instrumental and vocal music and commercial subjects.

Other teachers returning to their duties this fall are: Miss Hazel Layman, first and second grades; Mrs. Ruby Gompb, third and fourth; Mrs. Elpha Eichhorn, fifth and sixth; Burdette Hunter, vocational-agriculture; Mrs. Goldie Lehner, home economics and cafeteria manager; Mrs. Lois Preuninger, English, French, world history, and girls' physical education and health instructor; Robert Litell, English, mathematics, boys' junior high physical education and geography; Robert Doolittle, plane geometry, physics, general science, Ohio history and mathematics; and Walker Huffman, superintendent, head coach, American history, boys' high school physical education and junior high health.

School custodian is Donald James and cooks are Mrs. Wilda Weaver and Mrs. Helen Newland. Bus drivers are Mrs. Ruby Herr, Mrs. Ardena Cates and Mrs. Newland. Routes of the busses will be about the same this year as in past years.

The cafeteria will open on Wednesday, Sept. 8, with lunch prices remaining the same.

Ohio Fuel Gas Co. Asks Pipeline Project Okay

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Ohio Fuel Gas Co., Columbus, has asked the Power Commission for authority to build about 28 miles of natural gas pipeline and other facilities on its system in Ohio.

The company said yesterday the new facilities—in nine separate projects—would be located in Ashland, Cuyahoga, Delaware, Hardin, Lorain, Medina, Ross, Sandusky, and Champaign counties. The estimated cost is $832,700.

RAIL SERVICE RESTORED

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Complete service was restored last night to the New York Central's main line through Versailles after a mail coach derailed there early yesterday. Railway officials said an axle broke on the coach, part of the crack westbound New York-St. Louis Knickerbocker. No one was injured.

Judge Finds Speeder To Be 'Mighty Honest'

FITCHBURG, Mass. (AP)—Maurice C. Ellis, 19, of West Townsend, charged with speeding, vigorously disputed police testimony in district Court yesterday that he was doing 50 miles an hour.

He interrupted several times to insist he was doing—not 50—but 60.

Judge A. Z. Goodfellow imposed a $15 fine and commented "The least I can say about you is that you are mighty honest."

Japanese have used cormorants (birds) to catch fish for them for at least 1,000 years, says the National Geographic Society.

East Liverpool Postman May Get Lost Pay

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed and sent to the White House a bill to pay $2,799.93 to an East Liverpool, Ohio, postman found fired "unjustifiably" from his job 10 years ago.

The Post Office Department discharged mailman Charles R. Logan Sept. 6, 1944 on grounds he had, among other things, written a "fasle and misleading" letter to the late President Roosevelt about his work.

But the Civil Service Commission overruled the department, and Logan got his job back Nov. 5, 1945.

The bill now awaiting President Eisenhower's signature would make up for the salary Logan lost while he was under suspension.

Logan had written Roosevelt that he had been treated unfairly by his superiors regarding the routes he was assigned and his seniority as a veteran of World War I.

Among the other charges against him were that he loitered on duty and prepared false statements as to the amount of mail he handled.

This bill that has now passed Congress was strongly opposed by former Postmaster General J. M. Donaldson, who said he thought Logan had "received most lenient treatment."

Logan said that while he was off his mail route he could not find another job because his employers had "disgraced and defamed" him.

"Even when I advertised in the East Liverpool Review for work while on discharge," he said, "Postmaster Benedum (his superior) objected to that."

Ban on Communist Party Rests in Joint Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—At this moment it's the uncertainty which is the most distinguished feature of the maneuvers to produce, or not to produce, a law banning the Communist party.

Congress hasn't passed such an act yet. The uncertainty extends in three directions:

(1) Whether Congress, anxious to get home this week, will actually approve such a measure. (2) whether President Eisenhower would let it become law; and (3) what effect it would have if it became law.

The congressional uncertainty—

Last Thursday the Senate passed a bill making it a crime to be a Communist party member. The Eisenhower administration had opposed such a step for these reasons:

IT MIGHT WRECK some laws, already on the books which the government is using to combat communism and, in the end, the Supreme Court might declare it unconstitutional.

So on Monday, under administration prodding, the House tried to get around the problem by passing a bill which was a watered-down version of the one the Senate approved.

The House measure wouldn't make it a crime to be a Communist party member. It would simply deprive the party of legal standing If the Senate okayed this, such an act might not interfere with other anti-Communist laws.

But yesterday the Senate rejected the House version in favor of its own. How could these differences be reconciled? Both houses set up a joint committee to agree on a single bill both houses could approve.

IF THE CONFEREES can't agree, that ends any chance for banning the party this year. If they agree on a single bill, both houses must approve. There's not much time left.

The presidential uncertainty — Eisenhower's attorney general, Herbert Brownell, led the fight against the original Senate bill. If Congress, nevertheless, votes for it, the President is in a dilemma:

If he signed the measure into law, it would be contrary to what his administration had argued. If he vetoed it, he would be going contrary to the will of Congress, particularly in an election year when a firm stand against communism cannot be considered politically unpopular.

The uncertainty of its effect—

The Subversive Activities Control Board, operating under authority of the 1950 McCarran Internal Security Act, ruled Communist party members and leaders must be registered with the government on the grounds that their party is a Moscow agent. The Communists appealed to the Supreme Court.

IF THE COURT, perhaps by next spring, upholds the board the Communists will be required to register. But the McCarran Act says the fact that a Communist had to be registered would not incriminate him in any way.

But if a new law goes on the books now, making it a crime to be a Communist, the government could not force a Communist to incriminate himself by registering as a Communist because the Constitution bars forced self-incrimination. So the administration fears passage of a law making it a crime to be a Communist would wreck the McCarran Act and make futile years of government efforts to force Communists to register.

That's the administration reasoning. But is it sound? It may not be. There's uncertainty as to whether the McCarran Act can be made to work whether or not there's a new law making it a crime to be a Communist.

Suppose the Supreme Court ruled Communists would have to be registered as members of a party which is a Moscow agent, and the party then announced it was dissolving and therefore had no more members.

Could the government then jail those people, who were known as Communists even though their party had said it was ceasing to exist, because they did not register? That is not certain. The government might try but that no doubt would mean another court fight.

Parity in the Market Place

The only damage that may be done by the new scale of flexible price supports for agriculture will stem from politics, not economics, Secretary of Agriculture Benson has sound economic reasons for wanting to get rid of inflexible supports, and most farmers can agree with his reasons. They can see eye to eye with the secretary of agriculture.

But Mr. Benson, whose integrity has become a tangible asset of the Eisenhower administration, was not on the political scene when the republican campaign of 1952 was being conducted. Severe potential damage was done when Republican spokesmen, including the presidential candidate, promised a continuation of rigid price supports. Their promises will be recited over and over by their political opponents this year.

Rigid supports were kept in existence for purely political reasons. Harry Truman proved in 1948 that rigid supports made votes on the campaign stump. But by the second session of the 83rd Congress this year, events had proved that rigid supports were piling up agricultural surpluses that could not be justified.

Secretary Benson worked out a plan to restore flexibility, as had been intended when the current price-support law was passed in 1948. He said he wanted to restore "parity in the market place." To minimize the impact of his plan on farm producers, he also worked out a plan to buy in surplus supplies outright, thereby taking them off the market. Some observers contend that the two plans combined will give farmers about the same level of income they would have had if 90 per cent of parity had been extended for another year.

But farm bloc politicians who think it is good politics to run against the Eisenhower administration will not let it be forgotten that in 1952 the exigencies of a political campaign tempted Eisenhower to say things that could mean only one thing — that no reduction of parity was contemplated. It remains to be seen what political damage the opponents of his administration can do with this in the congressional campaigns of 1954.

As far as economic damage is concerned, it is generally agreed there will be none.

Chickens and History

Once more, as in the Schechter case that blew the National Industrial Recovery Act out of existence in 1935, chickens may be a turning point in the battle between big government and little enterprise. An 81-year-old chicken raiser of Norristown, Pa., is seeking an injunction to keep the government from messing around with his business.

His name is Joseph Blattner, and he says he wants no part of wheat acreage controls and price subsidies because in the first place they're unconstitutional and in the second place he is not operating in interstate commerce.

That was the key in the famous Schechter case 19 years ago—that Congress cannot delegate to anyone the power to regulate goods that are not moving in interstate commerce. Blattner's chickens, he says, are sold locally. The wheat he raises to feed the chickens is consumed locally—by the chickens. Therefore, he contends the government has no right to tell him how much wheat he can, grow or what rules he must observe if he buys wheat from his neighbors.

If the Blattner case were standing alone, it could be disregarded. But it is not standing alone. It is standing alongside the Schechter case, in which the Supreme Court affirmed that a chicken dealer who was not in interstate commerce could not be forced to conduct his business under the provisions of a federal law covering the operation of his private enterprise. The Supreme Court could not very well disregard the precedent.

Here They Go Again

The football coaches in the big football universities are still croaking against the one-platoon system. They croaked against it all during last season and sid it would kill football, and the anvil chorus is at it again.

One-platoon football didn't kill football. It didn't kill college football players either, which was the other dire thing predicted. It gave some of the smaller colleges and universities a chance to make a better showing against team with manpower to burn, and that was why the coaches of the smaller colleges voted for it in the first place.

Naturally, coaches who never have the problem of finding 11 good men and true to make them look like geniuses always will be opposed to one-platoon football. They prefer to use specialists on offense and defense. Bobby Dodd, the Georgia Tech coach, says he and some of his associates will get around the rule against free substitution this year by fielding two complete teams, so neither team will get weary. While that wouldn't be new, because Knute Rockne used to do it at Notre Dame, it would be new in modern times and it would confront the coaches of the small schools with the same old problem—how to keep the geniuses with manpower to burn from looking like geniuses every Saturday at the expense of the weak sisters who are lucky if they can put 11 men on the field at one time.

The weak sisters, would have to adopt another rule. Don't bet they wouldn't.

Martin Dies' Ordeal

By David Lawrence

Harassment of Red Investigator Told by Texan

Martin Dies, Texas Democrat, has just told for the first time the complete story of the frustration and interference he encountered from the Roosevelt administration as well as the details of personal attacks which he suffered from 1938 to 1945 when he was chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He withdrew at that time from the race in his district in the face of Communist and labor-union and "liberal" opposition but now has come back to Congress as a representative-at-large, elected by an overwhelming majority of the voters of the entire State of Texas.

"I had stood for this thing for seven years," said Dies in a copyrighted interview in U.S. News & World Report, this week. "What was really the matter with me was nervous exhaustion. They gave me the works—everything they could do, little personal things."

"Anything like what McCarthy has had?" he was asked.

"Oh, he doesn't know what it is. They tried to get me, too. Listen, they examined my income taxes for six months — sat there in my town with two revenue men sent from Baltimore and spent six months making me dig up everything I had ever made for ten years."

"Did they find anything wrong?"

THE TEXAS congressman told of harassing tactics by the White House and by cabinet officers and by Communists. He told of threats against his life and attempts to kidnap his son, which he attributes generally to opponents of his investigating committee.

"There was hardly a mail that I opened," he said, "that there wasn't a note threatening me with death or the children with kidnapping."

Dies says that as early as 1941 he "submitted to the executive a list of about 2,000 Communists on the federal payroll, including Alger Hiss, Harry Dexter White, Harold Glasser and others, and asked that they be discharged."

This was refused, so Dies persuaded the House of Representatives to appropriate $100,000 for the purpose of investigating the Department of Justice. He says that, while the FBI was an efficient organization, its hands were tied by its superiors.

Dies says that the late President Roosevelt admitted to him that it would be bad politically for the Democratic party to alienate elements friendly to the Communists.

He charges also that, when his committee was investigating the American Youth Congress for possible Communist connections, Mrs. Roosevelt invited Joseph Lash and the rest of the officers to stay at the White House during the entire investigation.

"She (Mrs. Roosevelt) drove them to the committee hearings in the White House car," relates Dies. "They'd show up in the morning. Mrs. Roosevelt would come sit right by them, knitting. Then when noontime came, they all got in the White House car and went back to the White House.

"Finally, the evidence was so conclusive that Mrs. Roosevelt became very disturbed and sent for me to come to the White House."

AT THIS MEETING, according to Dies, Mrs. Roosevelt admitted that Joseph Lash had confessed to her he had been a Communist but that she still wanted to get him a commission in the U.N. Naval Intelligence. The Texas congressman then insisted that Lash testify under oath, which he did.

"So, then Joe Lash came before the committee," says Dies, "and I got him to confess that he had perjured himself, that he had been a Communist, and that he was filing an application for the Naval Intelligence and would get in the Naval Intelligence.

"Then I asked him why he was not drafted, and he couldn't give an explanation. I then called the draft board in New York to find out, in the presence of the committee, and the draft board said that because of White House interference they did not draft Joe Lash. So, that was the sort of thing that Roosevelt was surrounded with. Until you understand that, you simply don't understand what went on during that critical period."

Dies tells of how the CIO's executive board had on it a majority of Communists, how the CIO later expelled several unions to which he had originally drawn attention, and says he was generally condemned during that time for his "methods," although he never quite understood what was meant by this form of attack except to frustrate his committee's work.

The Texas congressman says, moreover, that if one-man hearings are abolished, "it would be the end of all of them." He says there is so much work to be done that individual members have to hold many of the hearings.

AS FOR McCARTHY he feels the Wisconsin senator, like himself, has been making some mistakes.

"I felt that McCarthy," said Dies, "rushed headlong into trouble that he could avoid. Now, perhaps he couldn't. It's awfully easy to sit on the sidelines and tell the other fellow how to run a committee."

Dies favors outlawing the Communist party. He doesn't favor executive employes revealing secrets to congressmen, but he tells of one instance where a State Department employe did come to his home to warn him that the Roosevelt administration was about to burn some of the records which the Hoover administration had on the Communists. Under those circumstances, he thinks an executive employe should go to members of Congress and tell them the facts.

The real issue, he believes, is whether the individual feels that, by informing Congress, he is upholding his oath to defend the United States.

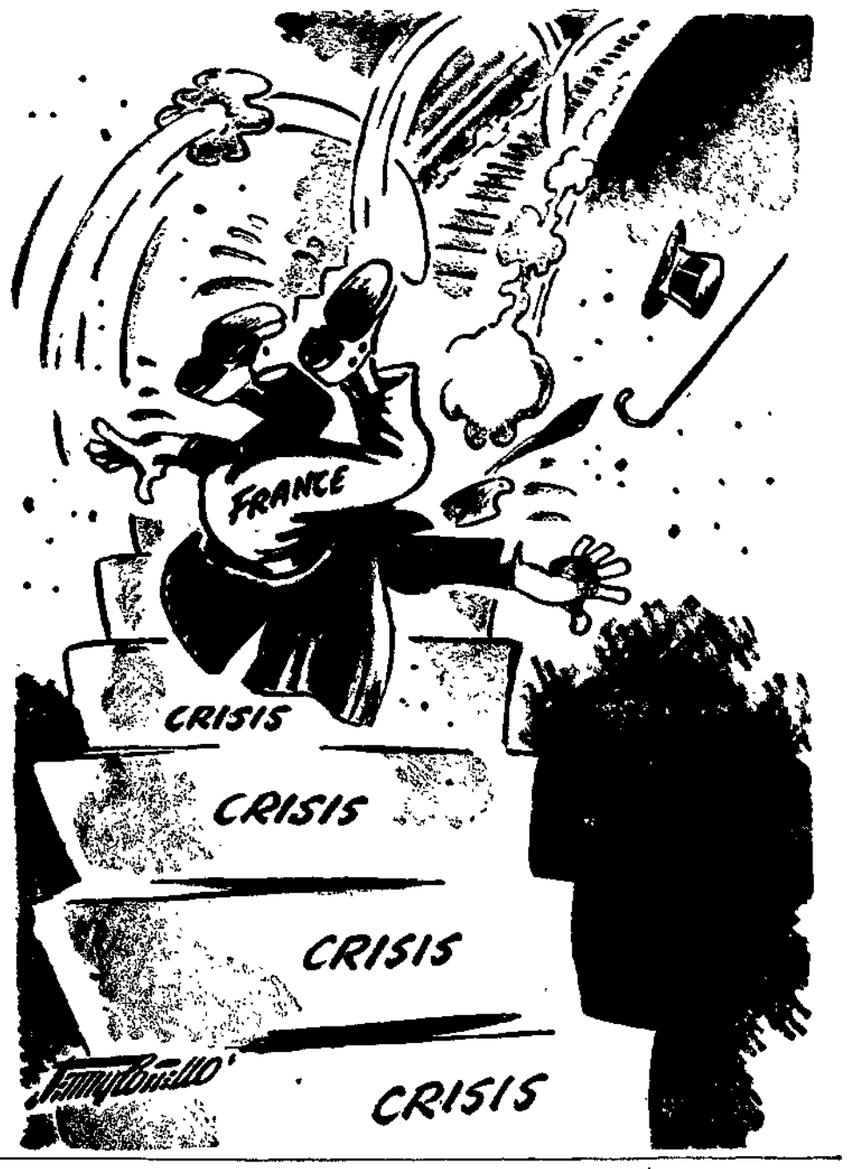
Is There No End?



Little Progress on Road to Economy

By Raymond Moley

The taxpayer will be told by Republican campaign orators this fall about the wonderful things that the new tax bill has done for him. He also will hear that this Republican regime in Congress and in the executive departments has made great progress toward more economical spending.

Of course, Democratic orators will deny the substantial nature of those gains.

The truth will lie somewhere between the claims of the two parties.

The taxpayer, if he will examine the final reckoning which this 83rd Congress has handed him for payment, can say: "It might have been worse under Truman and a Democratic congress." He can add in all truth: "It might have been better."

His final choice betwen the two parties in the matter of economy can only be a choice between two rather unsatisfactory alternatives.

IF ANY MEDALS are passed out, the gold one should go to the House of Representatives, the silver one to the Senate, and a rather small button to the executive.

This year, as well as in the 1953 session, the final appropriations of the House were the lowest. The Senate came next, and the budget requests of the Executive were considerably higher than the final action of the two houses.

When we compare the 1953 record with that achieved this year, the final total of 1954 may be somewhat lower. But this year the Congress seemed less disposed to slash the requests of the President.

Last year the House cut about 4 billion dollars from the President's requests. The Senate added a billion to the House figure. The final total was therefore 3 billion dollars less than the requests.

THIS YEAR the House was less disposed to cut, but when the figures are all added up we find that it cut nearly 2 billion dollars, while the Senate raised the figure somewhat. The final reckoning of the appropriations will be about 1.5 billion dollars less than the requests.

Before the taxpayer starts to celebrate, he should note that these appropriations are not all that he will be called upon to pay.

The ever - watchful Sen. Byrd has constantly reminded us that there are hanging over our heads nearly 90 billion dollars in appropriations made in previous years that have not yet been spent.

Despite the fact that to increase the immense national debt will not look good in a political campaign, the administration has had to ask for an increase in the debt limit.

This request Byrd fought with arguments that seem to have clear justification. But over the objections of the Virginia senator, the House voted to raise the limit, and the Senate yielded to the extent of 6 billion dollars.

It is important to note, however, that Byrd succeeded in putting a time limit on this increase. For the agreement will cancel out this authorization on June 30, 1955. This proviso can, it is true, be repealed by subsequent action of Congress, but it will be a stern reminder to the executive departments to keep their requests low.

All in all, the Republicans have proved again the old political principle, if you can grace it with the word principle, that politicians, as far as spending is concerned, are much alike under the shallow skin of party differences. They like to promise economy and practice extravagance.

Only once or twice in a generation do we get a rare specimen of which the late Calvin Coolidge and the living Harry Byrd can be cited as examples. These unusual people really believe in practicing what they preach.

Digging Into Mountains

By MARK DANA

The special campaign of the Hoover Commission on Government Reorganization, which was predicted by a report in these columns two years ago, to reduce the voluminous paper work of federal establishments will win encouraging lip service within and without government offices, yet is in the windmill-tilting category.

Anyone who has had dealings with any federal agency is aware of the multitude of forms to be processed, often in multiple copies, for the simplest operations. Any veteran of the armed services knows that the jesting admonition "Always make six copies of everything" usually is based on fact.

The Hoover Commission zealots for thrift and efficiency believe a reasonable curtailment of paper work would save the government $22 million a year, would empty 10,000 file drawers instantly, would permit other use or restoration to the landlord-owners of many storage warehouses. It has been found that government agencies produce or accumulate 10,000,000,000 pieces of paper each year.

Not only that, but the government requires industries and suppliers with which it deals to maintain their own bales of records, many obsolete, and it has been reported that the government still has in its files the income tax returns of every taxpaying individual and firm from the time such levy was initiated.

No doubt the Hoover Commission inspectors will find thousands of government personnel, military and civilian, unnecessarily occupied with handling unnecessary paper work at taxpayers' expense. Such a revelation, of course, will not automatically effect any great reforms.

The detailed, verbose and multiplied phases of legalistic paper work has been of common knowledge all along, yet the traditions and cumulative complexities associated with court and governmental processes are pretty well rooted.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

Elder John Parcell, who came to Marion County from Knox County in 1828, was not only a preacher of the gospel but was well learned in carpentry. The pioneers lost no time in availing themselves of his knowledge in the erecting of frame houses. His method was first to make his mortises and tenons, bore the pin-holes through the mortises, put his frame together, mark his draw-bore on the tenons, take them out far enough to bore them through, then put them together and tack them with hook pins. He squared his work by the 6, 8, and 10 problem in order to scribe his braces, then his job was laid out. About the time the pioneers became proficient in their work, reports were circulated that a Yankee down East could frame a building without trying any of his work until it was ready to put up, and it would all come together complete.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Dog Catchers' Strike

The strike of dog catchers in New York may spread to other cities of the land, it is reported and, whether it is over or not at the moment, we think dog owners of America should be warned. Such a strike raises heck with dog-life. They show unusual happiness and a new feeling of security at such a time.

Our Hungarian mouse hound (Tillinghast's Son of Sheba's Delight III, if you must know the full name, which we have shortened to "Flit," out of consideration for stutterers) was never so carefree, buoyant and difficult to control as during the dog-catcher's walkout. He got positively wayward

From the moment the dog catchers struck, he got ornery. He refused to go out unless his collar was on and he kept gnawing away at it to remove the license number. He began digging up lawns just to be defiant.

We punished him and know what happened. All the neighbor's dogs picketed our place! We used to shout, Dog catcher! and scare him stiff.

Now he leers at the words. The man next door reports that his pooch has been missing since the first day of the strike. He suspects it went out in sympathy. Some striking dog catchers have written in about our recent suggestion they were fighting for the same rates for catching chows as catching greyhounds. . . "Certainly," one letter said, "After while a greyhound realizes the rabbit is a fake, but the chow is more difficult.

French poodles are our toughest problem. They are pampered so much they think they are people, not dogs. I never saw a French poodle that didn't take an air of superiority over me even when it was in the wagon behind the wire netting. They always make me feel they are taking ME to the dog pound."

We heard that other animals, too, are taking liberties since the strike, which was directed against the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

An old horse attached to a Central Park hack ran away the other night, zig-zagged all over the road and behaved as it never had before. What startled the driver and passengers was that it kept turning its head around and giving them the horse laugh. It knew no organization dealing with horse behavior was in a position to act fast.

Some day a strike of dog catchers is going to reach that exalted stage where federal mediation boards, conciliation groups and maybe White House hearings will be required. The question of what's fair to the dogs and to the owners is bound to enter into it at some stage. Pooches will never behave well when dog catchers are striking, and since the owners can't do much about it, like may, one day, have to announce a policy and act.

A dog-catcher's lot is, of course, not a happy one. In joking about it we realize it is tough work calling for speed, patience and no little courage in the paunches. (How'd you like to get an order: "Go down and bring in a bad acting wolfhound and an obstreperous St. Bernard who still thinks he is in the Alps. And remember, do it gently!?)

Any man who keeps his auto in a country barn doesn't care how soon the swallows go back to Capistrano.

Willie Mays' has his fans but Ex-U. S. Congressman James Shanley of Connecticut says "King" Kelly, a player in the eighties and nineties, was the greatest ballplayer of all time and that the records of his performance will show it. The former congressman has traveled thousands of miles to collect data on "King" Kelly and is at work on a book on a pretty fabulous baseball star of yesterday.

In the war on hoodlums New York needs not only more policemen but more nightsticks. There was no attacking of cops by teen-age toughies in the days when the punks knew a cop could conk them without cries of "How outrageous" from the cosy and comfortable critics who owe their safety to the police.

News of Other Years

40 YEARS AGO — President Wilson issued a statement calling upon citizens of the United States to confine their speech to the spirit of strict neutrality in the European war situation.

With the admission from the war office that England's army was on the firing line, interest in the impending battle became intense. The British forces numbered in excess of 100,000 men.

20 YEARS AGO — The Huey P. Long machine held the broadest powers of military and political control ever conferred on a single faction in Louisiana.

An appeal from Mayor C. A. Bolin's order removing him as police chief was filed by William E. Marks with Paul Jones, secretary of the city civil service commission.

Marion's first hobby show and homecoming celebration, a six-day event expected to bring many former residents back to Marion for visits, opened.

10 YEARS AGO — Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's tanks thundered into the immediate environs of Paris in what appeared to be a new roundup of German forces retreating toward Rouen on the Seine.

The Germans were setting fire to East Prussian frontier villages in the path of Russian divisions drawn up at the border.

An Allied air and naval blockade spread creeping paralysis across vital sea lanes below the Philippines, posing an ultimate threat to all Japanese holdings south of China.

A fleet of Allied bombers and fighters streamed across the Channel toward northern France, where the Germans were reported concentrating hundreds of river barges for a "Dunkerque" escape attempt across the Seine.

Almost always an unpleasant word, "no" is especially so when it turns up ahead of "Vacancy" in the motel sign about 7 o'clock of a hot evening when you have two or three worn-out kids in the car.

Succeeding Bedell Smith

Herbert Hoover Jr. New Undersecretary of State

WASHINGTON (AP) — Herbert Hoover Jr. won unanimous confirmation today as undersecretary of state.

His name was brought up shortly after the Senate met and was approved without debate by voice vote.

He was quickly approved by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee after the White House announcement last night.

Senate confirmation was expected today.

Bedell Smith Retiring

Hoover would succeed Walter Bedell Smith as right-hand man to Secretary of State Dulles. Smith is retiring at 58 from the military-diplomatic career on which he embarked 43 years ago.

"I am very much honored," Hoover told reporters. But he would say no more pending final Senate action.

Hoover, a petroleum engineer, has been an adviser to Dulles for about a year. As a troubleshooter he recently won worldwide attention and praise for his part in settling the three-year-long British-Iranian oil dispute.

His appointment caught many off guard. As recently as last weekend — and for months before that—he had been saying he would not accept the position.

Disliked Desk Job

The under secretary's job involves a lot of paperwork, among other things, and associates said Hoover had a typical engineer's dislike of desk work.

Another factor was a basic disagreement over tariffs reported between Hoover, on the one hand, and Eisenhower and Dulles.

The President and the secretary have said that tariffs must not be allowed to hamper the flow of imports from trade-hungry nations lest those countries be forced to turn to the Soviet bloc to sell their goods. Hoover was understood to have felt duties should be high enough to reflect the difference between wage rates paid American workers and those paid foreign workers producing the same articles.

Oil Consultant

The tall and quietly affable Hoover was born in London in 1903. He is a 1925 graduate of Stanford and took his master's degree at Harvard in 1928. He has served for years as a special consultant to such oil-rich countries as Venezuela and Iran.

Smith became a private in the Indiana National Guard. He was then 15. In World War II, as a general, he served as chief of staff to Eisenhower.

He went to the State Department in 1953 after heading the Central Intelligence Agency.

He is going to be an executive vice president of American Machine Foundry Co.

Ike Astonished By TVA Blast From Mitchell

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower says the books are open for inspection of a controversial power contract in the TVA area. Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell says he's glad Eisenhower is ready to disclose "the whole story behind the Dixon-Yates deal"

Mitchell's latest blast at the power contract came in a statement he issued in Chicago last night after Eisenhower had told his news conference he is astonished at Mitchell's criticism of the way the matter was handled.

The ruckus was stirred up on Monday when Mitchell—in a Chicago debate with Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall—charged that the President issued a personal order for award to the Dixon-Yates syndicate of a long-term contract to sell power to the Atomic Energy Commission in the TVA area of the middle South.

Mitchell said Eisenhower did so over the protests of both the AEC and the Tennessee Valley Authority and with Competitive bidding. And the Democratic party leader mentioned in this connection the President's friendship with famed golfer Bobby Jones, an officer of one of the companies associated with the Dixon-Yates group.

The furor extended to Capitol Hill, where both Democrats and Republicans voiced doubt that the Eisenhower—Jones friendship had figured in the handling of the contract.

In Atlanta, Jones said he "resents the implication" that a company enjoyed presidential favor because he had stock in it.

Answering Mitchell's charges that there is a "raw deal" in the making, Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday every single action he takes involving contractual relationships of the United States with anybody—except when the question of national security is involved—is open to the public.

The President said any of the newsmen present could go to the Budget Bureau or the AEC and get the complete record of the case.

Reporters were told at the two agencies that it would take a few days to get the material ready for publication. They also were informed the data probably would be available by the end of the week.

Eisenhower said he knew when he went into politics he would be subjected by many types of strange characters to many kinds of innuendo and allegations. But he was a little astonished, he said, that such innuendo should include a private citizen of the character and standing of Bob Jones.

There is no gentleman he knows, the President said, of whose integrity and probity he is more certain.

Observing that he wasn't going to defend himself, Eisenhower said of course he had approved recommendations for the contract.

Adding CHARM to YOUR Home

DON'T OVERCROWD SMALL ROOMS

. . . with too much massive furniture. If you do, the effect is certain to be cluttered and stifling. Large, bold patterns in wallpaper and upholstery fabrics and draperies — and small spotty rugs also tend to add confushion to the composition of a small room. Furniture should be in scale with the size of the room.

CHOOSE DOUBLE-DUTY PIECES

. . to make every inch of space count. Keep walls and floor light and plain. Whenever possible use wall-to-wall carpeting; have draperies the same color as walls. Double - duty furniture in sketch is arranged to give the effect of spaciousness. Cabinets serve as lamp tables, and yield precious storage space.

Pleasing everyone is a large order, but that's the goal we have set for ourselves. We want you to know that we never knowingly offer you an inferior piece of furniture. That we try always to give you tasteful styling, fine construction at prices that make every purchase a truly good value.

Housewives Problem:

Coffee Price To Go Down But Cost of Bread Rises

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—American housewives who took a dim view of coffee price boosting are looking forward today to their reward—coffee price cuts.

The Brazilian government hiked the export price of coffee in June. It was one hike too much for many Americans. And buying of Brazilian coffee by Americans dropped sharply.

Now the Brazilian government is reshuffling its complicated foreign exchange set - up and announces that Brazilian coffee farmers will get just as much in Brazilian money for their crop but Americans will pay less in dollars.

The American housewife got another break on the government price support a while back when the American government—which props the price of many food items just as Brazil supports the price of coffee—lowered the support price for butter. And with lower prices the American housewife has increased her buying of butter by about 8 per cent.

But on another front she is about to lose a skirmish. The price of bread has headed up by one cent in several cities. Bakers blame many things. One is government price supports for wheat.

Bakers say farmers are plating less of the high-grade wheat which bakers prefer for bread. Instead farmers are planting the lower grades which have the advantage of higher yields per acre. This gives farmers more bushels to put under government price support loans.

Bakers say farmers are planting the high grade wheat this summer, so bread prices are going up.

The housewife is getting a break at the meat counter, however, although this is due to high production rather than government controls. The American Meat Institute says that retail meat prices now are at the lowest level of the year and down considerably from the first of the year.

BRAZIL'S JUGGLING of coffee export prices was forecast last Friday when coffee future broke sharply on the New York Coffee & Sugar Exchange under selling by houses with Brazilian connections.

The following day Brazil announced it would let coffee exporters retain some American dollars when they sold to the United States. Previously they had to turn all dollars over to the Brazilian government and get cruzeiros for them.

Since Brazilians can get more cruzeiros for dollars on the free market than they can from their own government it means they can sell coffee for less here and still come out ahead at home.

The real story in the coffee break for the housewife, however, goes back to June 3 when the Brazilian government hiked its export price to 87 cents a pound from 68 cents. American housewives already had been slowing down on their purchases of coffee turning to other beverages, or making a pound of coffee go further.

WITH THE JUNE price hike, this trend became a wave of price resistance. Brazil's coffee exports to the United States were cut almost in half. Since Brazil depends upon coffee exports to supply it with the American dollars it needs, the situation became acute.

The Brazilian government bowed to the American housewife, juggled its cruzeiros once again, and came up with a lower price for coffee here.

It will be interesting to see how much if any, of the American market Brazil has lost by its previous price hiking.

One word of caution already has come from a Brazilian source. Horacio Cintra Leite, representative here of the Brazilian Coffee Institute says the new currency juggling is aimed at selling more coffee for dollars but that as for the world at large "demand for coffee remains above the level of supply" so world prices will remain stable for a long time.

The American housewife will wait and see.

British Differ With Greeks Over Cyprus

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Greece and Britain, outwardly long friends have come to diplomatic blows in the United Nations over the future of Cyprus a large Mediterranean island base which Britain has and Greece wants.

After five years of trying to get the British to agree on a Cyprus plebiscite the Greeks have announced they will come in before the end of the week with a plea for U.N. intervention.

Trading on U.N. declarations about the right of all peoples to self-determination, the Greeks now want the U.N. to vote for an election on Cyprus which they are sure would overwhelmingly favor union with Greece.

The British are pretty sure that the island's preponderantly Greek population would vote that way too. They don't like the idea.

The British have just been forced into an agreement to leave the Suez Canal area. They have been sniped at by Spain, which wants Gibraltar at the western gate of the Mediterranean. They are fearful that Communist influence in Cyprus as well as in Greece itself might someday threaten effectiveness of what is now considered an important NATO base, made more important by the promised evacuation of Suez.

The British make no secret of opposing any move to weaken their hold on Cyprus.

They argue that Cyprus never was a part of Greece that Turkey opposes any change in island rule because almost one-fifth of the island's half-million population is Turkish, and that any change might hamper NATO defenses.

The Greeks retort that it's silly to say Cyprus never belonged to Greece. "It was Greece," they say.

They argue that all elements of the Greek-speaking population—religious, cultural, political, conservative, liberal, radical, mercantile—favor union with Greece and have been striking recently to prove it. The population has rejected British offers of a new constitution because there is no Greek union clause in it.

The United States has not made up its mind how it will vote.
